

UPDATED JANUARY 21, 2012

John Calhoun Putman

South Carolina to Blount County Alabama

John was a son of William Putman and Dulcybella Watkins. He was born in Laurens County, South Carolina about 1808.

He married Nancy Ellen Garrett about 1837, and they were in the 1840 census of Laurens County. In 1850 they are in Blount County, Alabama where he is 41, Nancy 37 and they had their first five children.

By 1860 things went a tad downhill for John. Instead of listing himself as a farmer, he listed as a day laborer and his two oldest sons, Reuben and Henry, were working on a neighbor's farm. But, he had two more children by then.

In 1870 he is still in Blount County, Alabama with a farm again and one more daughter. In 1880 he is still in the county at age 66 and Nancy is 60.

I assume they died by 1900, as they were not in that census. Their children were:

HENRY PUTMAN born in 1838 in South Carolina. He was not in Alabama in 1870. Perhaps a Civil War Casualty.

SUSAN PUTMAN born in 1842 in South Carolina. She married James W. Abbott August 3, 1876 in Blount County. She may have married twice as there is also a marriage record in Blount County for a Susan Putman and Reuben W. Stearns on December 24, 1882.

REUBEN IRA PUTMAN born February 17, 1844 in the Laurens District of South Carolina. He married Mary Lou Kelly from Georgia on April 20, 1865. They were in Blount County through the 1900 census. He died September 7, 1908. In 1910, Mary Lou was living with her son James Louis Putman. Mary Lou was still with James Louis in 1920. Reuben's birth and death dates come from his tombstone in Mount Taber Cemetery in Blount County. But, I have another source that states he was born December 14, 1840. Mary Lou is buried in the same cemetery and her stone reads that she was born November 21, 1843 and died February 16, 1921. A relative believes that Mary Lou was part Indian (her mother full blooded Cherokee). Reuben served in the Confederate Army in Alabama from November 1861 until 1865 when the War ended. Based on the various census returns and other info, their children were:

Henry Andrew Putman born in January 1869. He married Martha Ballew (Ballou) in Blount County on November 14, 1886. I do not find them after 1900. In 1900 they had:

Holly January 19, 1871. They remained in Blount County, Alabama through the 1900 census report. In 1900, his wife is listed as Mary Jane age 45. In 1910 and 1920 she is listed as Milde A. so must all be the same gal. In 1920 he was listed as 70 and she at 65. He died October 15, 1921. Children, based on the census data were:

Richard Lander Putman born October 18, 1870, and died January 5, 1944. In 1900, he had a wife named Charlotte and two young daughters. I believe her last name was Harris. She was born in May 1871 and died November 24, 1925. Both are buried in Mt. Taber Cemetery, the info comes from their stones. They were here through the 1920 census. In 1930, he is in Marshall County with a new wife Ida E. who was married to a Harmon before and had a 10 year old daughter with her. Looks like he just deserted all his kids as in 1930 they are all still in Blount County. The children were:
