WILSON PUTMAN

North Carolina to Tennessee Then to Jackson County Alabama

Wilson Putman was another son of Benjamin and Elizabeth Putman of North Carolina. His life is told in the NORTH CAROLINA Section. He married Rebecca Morris in about 1799 in Rutherford County. He took his family to Rhea County, Tennessee in about 1822. He died there in about 1828 and Rebecca was a widow in the 1830 Tennessee census.

In the middle 1830s, Rebecca and her family moved a few miles south into Jackson County, Alabama. In the 1840 census she was there as were her sons Morris and Wilson and their families. Jesse, John, Margaret and Elizabeth were still at home with their mother.

Benjamin, the eldest son, had left Tennessee for Rives (Henry) County, Missouri. His life is covered in the section on MISSOURI PUTMANS.

By 1850, Morris had died but Wilson, junior and Jesse were there. John had married, but had moved to Tennessee.

Wilson died in the 1860s in Jackson County. Five of his children went into northwest Arkansas and settled in Carroll County. These children are detailed in the section on ARKANSAS PUTMANS.

This section covers Wilson's children that spent a good part of their lives in Alabama.

MORRIS PUTMAN

Morris Putman was born in Rutherford County in about 1805. His wife was named Nancy and she was born in North Carolina. They were probably married about 1823 in Rutherford County and then moved to Tennessee. Morris also first appears in Rhea County, Tennessee on the 1825 tax list. In the 1830 Tennessee census, he and Nancy are shown with three young daughters and a son, all under ten.

The family moved to Jackson County, Alabama by the 1840 census. This was where Morris died in 1848. Nancy was in Jackson County in the 1850 census, but was just over the border in Franklin County, Tennessee in 1860. In 1870, she was back in Jackson County.

Their children, the first 4 born in Tennessee the rest in Alabama, were:

Rebecca Putman

Rebecca was born in 1825. She married Thomas Damron in Franklin County, Tennessee on February 2, 1860. She apparently was his second or third wife. He had two small girls when they married. They also lived in the Paint Rock section of Jackson County. They had three children of their own. Rebecca died in the early 1880s, Thomas died in May 1910, after having yet another wife and more family.

The children with Rebecca were:

William served in the 51st Alabama infantry and fought for the CSA at the Battle of Shilo among others. He ultimately died of the wounds he received in the fighting.

They were in Franklin County, Tennessee in 1860 with one daughter. He was in Jackson County, Alabama in 1870. I don't have them yet for 1880.

In 1900, the gang is still in Jackson County. Elizabeth, then 63 years old, is living with her son Christopher.

Martha was born about 1830.

Wilson Putman

Wilson was born in November 1830. He married Mary Ann Keele in Coffee County on December 22, 1859. I guess she died pretty soon as on January 12, 1861, Wilson married her sister Sarah Ann Keele. In 1870 he is in that huge combined family headed by Nancy his mother. He is 38 and it appears that he is widowed again. There are two sons in this group that are his. They are John M. and David Judson Putman.

On January 11, 1871, he married Roxanna or Roxy Ann Medford in Jackson County. Roxy was born in South Carolina in May 1839. By 1880, Wilson and Roxanna and more kids are in Fannin County, Texas where they all will still be in 1900. In 1910 he is widowed in Grayson County, Texas at age 79.

For details on this family, see the section on TEXAS PUTMANS.

He then seems to have married a Susan E. and moved to Mississippi where the first four children were born. Then he returned to Franklin County, Texas where they were in 1900. In 1910 and 1920, they were in Hopkins County, Texas. At that time, the kids were gone and he was 60 and she was 59. The children were:

Much of the following information on this family was supplied to me by a descendant, Evelyn Putman Sinor of Nashville, Tennessee.

They were in Franklin County in 1860 and in Williamson County, Tennessee in 1870 with three children. I don't find him in 1880, but he is in Williamson County in 1900 with a new wife, Mary C. The children in the first marriage were:

MARTHA PUTMAN born in 1860. I don't find her after 1870 when she was listed as being 9 years old, and I can't find any marriage records on Martha. I assume she must have died. Descendants have no info on her at all.

In 1920, Sarah and the kids are with her new husband in Lake County, Tennessee. The children were:

WILLIAM J. LYONS born in Alabama in 1840.

PERRY LYONS born in Alabama in 1845.

JAMES D. LYONS born in Alabama in 1850.

WILSON PUTMAN JR.

The young Wilson Putman was born in 1812 in Rutherford County. He moved with the family to Tennessee. On October 20, 1830, he married Rebecca Flemming in Rhea County, Tennessee. There is another researcher that feels Rebecca's last name was Pitman, not Flemming. I am not certain which it was. Their first child was named Flemming. Generally in those days first born were named for the maternal side.

Wilson took up the Blacksmith trade and moved with his family to Alabama. They moved first to Jackson County and then to Madison County, Alabama.

Wilson and Rebecca's first child, Flemming Putman, was born in Alabama. The 1840 Census had them in Jackson County, Alabama, the 1850 Census has them in Madison County and in 1860 they were back in Jackson County.

Young Wilson followed the blacksmith trade all his life as did his son Wilson. Wilson Putman fought in the Seminole War in Florida from October 26, 1837 through April 12, 1838.

In the 1860 Census, Wilson was living in the town of Princeton in Jackson County Alabama. This is the last record that I have of him. I assume he died there in the mid 1860s.

There is a marriage record in Jackson County where Wilson Putman married Elizabeth Wilson on March 8, 1862. I can only guess that Rebecca died after the 1860 census and Wilson remarried.

I am going to go out on a limb here. I don't find Wilson in any 1870 census, but in 1870 his eldest son Flemming is just over the border in Franklin County, Tennessee. I'll just bet Wilson and his wife Elizabeth were there too. Then he must have died in the 1870s and Elizabeth and their joint three kids returned to Jackson County, Alabama. In 1880, she is there and all three of the kids were shown as being born in Tennessee. By 1900, many of Wilson's kids were in Franklin County. Just makes sense.

Wilson and Rebecca Putman had the following children:

Flemming Putman

Flemming was born in April 1832. He married Elizabeth Jenkins on December 27, 1851 in Madison County. They were in Bedford County Tennessee in 1860. Elizabeth must have died in the mid to late 1860s, as on May 27, 1870 Flemming married Mary L. Kitchner in Franklin County, Tennessee. They were in Moore County, Tennessee in 1880, and his married son

Henderson lives next door or probably with him.

In 1900 he is in Moore County, Tennessee and is 68, Mary is 68 and he has three grand children, two Marlers and one Clark, at home. He died in July, 1903 in Moore County, Tennessee.

Here are a few of his children that I can guess at:

HENDERSON J. PUTMAN born in September 1852. He first married Matilda Jane Prince in Bedford County on December 8, 1869 and then later married Omie Wilson in Bedford County on December 25, 1878. In 1880 they are in Moore County, Tennessee with two sons. In 1900 they are in Hardeman County, Texas with three more. Henderson died in 1908. The children were:

John William Putman born March 5, 1875. He married Mattie Shofel in 1901 in Hardeman County Texas. She died there in 1906. He moved to Oklahoma and married a Lillie who had been married to a Whitehead guy previously. They were in Mountain Park, Kiowa County Oklahoma in 1910 through 1930 at least. He died in Comanche County, Oklahoma November 8, 1953, and is buried in Kiowa County. His wife Lillie was born in 1874 and died in 1955. She too is buried in Kiowa County. They had a son:

Horton Putman born in 1896 and died in Kiowa County in 1970. He was married in Los Angeles, California in the 1930.

Logan Lewis Putman born in November 1878. He married Mora Rhine May 2, 1915. He died in Hardeman County Texas September 19, 1922.

Mary Ann Putman born in Quanah, Texas September 20, 1887. She married James William Cotton January 7, 1905. They were in Oklahoma by 1920 and she died in Lawton, Comanche County Oklahoma February 8, 1947. James was born in Chattanooga, Tennessee in 1868 and died in Tillman County Oklahoma in 1932. They had three children.

Josie Putman born in October 1889 in Texas.

MATILDA 'Matta' PUTMAN born in about 1855. She was not in the 1870 census.

In 1900 he was in Tarrant County, Texas with a new wife named Palestine and the first two children plus one more. He died in Fort Worth, Texas August 2, 1915. He was buried in Palo Pinto County the next day.

Victoria Putman born in August 1877 in Tennessee.

Rufus Estel Putman born July 13, 1879 in Tennessee and died in San Diego, California December 12, 1956.

MARTHA JANE PUTMAN born in 1859. She married J. C. Clark in Moore County on December 9, 1880. The only child I know of was:

William Clark born in May 1881.

NANCY C. PUTMAN born about 1864. She married W. J. Marler on July 8, 1880 in Moore County, Tennessee. They both must have died by 1900, as Flemming in 1900 had two Marler kids living as grand children with him. They were:

William Marler born in May 1881.
Marsh Marler born in January 1883.

ELIZABETH EVA PUTMAN born about 1865. She married A. A. Clark in Moore County on June 14, 1883. The only child I have is:

Zula Clark born in December 1881.

Caroline Putman

Caroline was born in 1834. I have nothing else, sorry.

Mary Jane Putman

JOHN B. PUTMAN

John Putman was born in Rhea County Tennessee in 1820. He too was at home with his mother in 1850. He married Rosanna Thompson in Jackson County on March 11, 1852.

They are in Jackson County in 1860 with two children, still there in 1870 with four children. In 1880 he has a new wife named Frances age 46. The age and place of birth (Alabama) are right for her to also simply be Rosanna going under her middle or some other name. I am not at all certain here.

By 1900, most all the kids are in Tarrant County, Texas. It would appear the whole gang moved there and then both the folks died leaving all the kids on the farm to fend for themselves.

Based on all the census returns, the children were:

Joseph Barnett Putman

Joseph (listed as John B. in 1860) was born in 1853. He married Margaret Bernice Flanagan in Jackson County on August 4, 1878. They are there in 1880 with a small daughter (not yet named).

They moved to Tarrant County Texas. Margaret died there October 15, 1899. Joe was listed without a wife there in 1900 through 1930 and then died there December 13, 1933.

But there is a death certificate in Tucson Arizona of an Ellen Adams Putman in 1936. It states she was married to Joseph Barnett Putman and was divorced. I have no idea when they were married and when they divorced.

Based on the various census data, the children, all at home in 1900, were:

FELICIA BEATRICE PUTMAN born in May 1879 in Alabama.

BERTHA PUTMAN born in April 1883 in Texas.

MYRTLE PUTMAN born in April 1886 in Texas.

LILLIE PUTMAN born in April 1889 in Texas.

VIDA PUTMAN born in February 1895 in Texas.

Mary C. Putman

Mary was born in 1859. That's all I know so far.

James M. Putman

James was born in 1849. I can't pin him down later.

William M. Putman

William was born in July 1865. He is in Fort Worth, Tarrant County, Texas in 1900 through 1930 living with his brother Robert.

Sarah C. Putman

Sarah was born in January 1868. She is in Fort Worth, Tarrant County in 1900.

Frederick A. Putman

Frederick was born in April 1870. He is in Fort Worth, Tarrant County, Texas in 1900 through 1930 living with his brother Robert.

Robert D. Putman

Robert was born in April 1874. He too is in Fort Worth 1900 through 1930. His wife was Kate.

Louanna Putman

Lou was born in Jackson County November 14, 1878. She is in Tarrant County 1900.

She may be the one who married Albert Franklin London in Blanco County, Texas August 14, 1901.

MARGARET PUTMAN

Margaret Putman was born about 1820-21 in Tennessee. She married John Ustes from Virginia. They were in Jackson County, Alabama in the 1850 Census. The reason I found them was that her brother Jesse was living with her and her husband John.
