

UPDATED JANUARY 17, 2010

EZEKIEL PUTMAN

of Hall County and Bartow County Georgia

Ezekiel Putman is the youngest son of Barnet and Sarah Putman, being born probably in Union County, South Carolina in the early 1770s. In the 1790 census Barnet is listed with 2 males under 16 and 5 females; I have no idea as to exactly who these folks were. It is possible that Ezekiel and Laban were still living at home with their father in 1790. I have not yet discovered the names of any of Barnet's daughters.

I have a letter written by Reding Putman, 2nd, to William Cobb of Elkins, West Virginia dated on June 14, 1912. In this letter, a request for details of family history, Reding writes, "Laban Putman was a brother of grandfather, Daniel Putman. Ezekiel who married Hannah Braselton was the son of Laban." I have another letter from Cobb dated 1911 where he firmly believes Ezekiel and Laban were brothers. I agree on the brother relationship as their ages seem to be within a few years of each other based on census data. Also, Reding was vague on other facts. He stated he was not certain if his father ever was in Indiana. This and other bits of Reding's writings lead me to believe that he was not a great historian.

At any rate, Ezekiel married Hannah Brazelton in 1800 in Anderson, South Carolina. Hannah was the daughter of Jacob Brazelton and Hannah Green of Granville County, North Carolina. According to William Cobb, she was born on June 24, 1781 in North Carolina. However, her cemetery inscription in the Hopewell Baptist Church Cemetery reads she was born March 20, 1783 and died May 20, 1833. Jacob's father, John Brazelton, was an immigrant from Wales who settled first in Frederick County, Maryland in 1740 and then moved to North Carolina. For those interested, I have a rather complete genealogy of the Brazelton family in another one of my books, The Canaday Family History.

I am not certain where he and Hannah were married, but they appeared in the 1800-1810 Census in the Pendleton District of South Carolina. At that time they had one son, probably Elias, under the age of 10 years. This census was taken about 1805.

In the early 1800s, Ezekiel moved with other members of his family to Warren County, Kentucky. On November 8, 1808 he obtained some 200 acres of land near his family in the Bowling Green area of south central Kentucky. Ezekiel is listed in the 1810 census of Kentucky as living with his wife in Warren County. At that time they had 4 sons and 2 daughters under the ages of 10 years.

Ezekiel was in Kentucky in August 1817, when he signed a voucher for $2.36 due him from his father's estate from his brother Daniel who was the administrator of Barnet Putman's estate. Two of Daniel's sons, Hazeal and Reding, had returned to Kentucky to settle a land affair and had the voucher signed at the time; it was later recorded in the Gibson County, Indiana Courthouse.

In the letters of William Cobb, who was a descendent of Ezekiel and a native of Georgia, he mentions that his father, who married Ezekiel's daughter Rebecca, told him his mother was partially raised in Kentucky though born in Georgia. And that Ezekiel Putman came to Georgia first in 1812 and moved back to Kentucky twice before making Georgia his permanent home.

Sometime in 1817, Ezekiel moved his family to Hall County, Georgia for the final time. This time, his brother, Thomas and his family went with them. There is a deed dated October 17, 1808 (I believe this is a typo and 1818 would be the correct year as Hall County was formed out of Jackson County in the year 1818) listed in Thomas Putman's book showing Ezekiel purchased land in Hall County. Other deeds show Ezekiel deeded lands to his sons, Elias in 1822 and Daniel in 1828.

Hannah died in 1833 and was buried in the Hopewell Baptist Church Cemetery in Cass County, Georgia. Cass County's name was changed to Bartow County in 1861. The records show that Ezekiel was married a second time to Sarah Hesterly on June 9, 1835. According to William Cobb, Ezekiel spent the rest of his life in Georgia and died there in 1845.

In 1840, the family is in Cass County, Georgia. Ezekiel died about 1845. I do not find Sarah listed in 1850, but I know she was in the area, either in Cass or Floyd County. In 1860 Sarah, then 57, is listed as a widow in the 1860 census of Floyd County, Georgia. She was surrounded by three Putmans, who must have been her children. She is still in Floyd County in 1870 and lists her age as 72. That is the last mention I have of her.

Based on all of this I guess that Ezekiel died in Floyd County in the mid 1840s and Sarah died there in the 1870s.

The probable family of Ezekiel and Hannah Putman included the following children. Some of this information was supplied by descendants. The rest I am putting together based on census records from Georgia.

Elias Putman

Elias Putman was born about 1801. One researcher says he married a woman named Faith. I find his wife listed as Libby (born 1813 in North Carolina) in the 1850 census. I believe her name was Arletha Faith Libby, as that is what she used in 1880.

They are in Hall County then in Cherokee County by 1840 probably for the Gold Rush that had just started.

In 1850 they were in Floyd County, Georgia. They are in Gordon County in 1860, and he is listed as insane. In 1870 several of the children are in Gordon County. I assume both Elias and Arletha died sometime in the 1860s.

The children I have are mostly taken from the census reports.

JANE PUTMAN was born in 1825.

ELIJAH COVINGTON PUTMAN was born November 19, 1826 and was married in Floyd County in 1849 to Mary Ellen Dodd who was only 14 years old at the time. I believe that her parents were John Dodd and Charlotte Earle from Floyd County. Elijah was a blacksmith. Mary died about 1858, and he married Malinda White. She was born in Floyd Count. Elijah and Malinda had nine children. Elijah died in Pike County, Arkansas on February 18, 1895. Malinda died there as well in 1895. Both buried in the Pleasant Grove, Arkansas Cemetery. There is much more on this family in the section on ARKANSAS PUTMANS. The children were:

Hannah Minnie Putman born in 1849. She would be the first child in the marriage with Mary Ellen. She and the next four kids were born in Georgia. In 1860 she is living with a Mary Ann Burns (same age as her mother would have been) in Rome, Floyd County. She then pops up with John and Rebecca in 1870 with her grandparents, John and Charlotte Dodd.

John Ezekiel Putman born February 6, 1851. In 1860 and 1870, he and his sister Rebecca will be with their grandparents, the Dodds. See the MISSOURI PUTMANS Section for complete info on this family.

William H. Putman born in Gordon County Georgia on December 18, 1852. He married Eliza Jane Reynolds on March 27, 1870 in Montgomery County, Arkansas. Eliza was born in Floyd County, Georgia on January 8, 1854 and died December 8, 1925. She was a daughter of Middleton and Elizabeth Reynolds. They remained in Montgomery County. Bill died on February 19, 1929. They are in Gap, Montgomery County Arkansas in 1880 and 1900.

Mary Ellen Putman born in 1854 and died by 1860.

Rebecca Putman born October 22, 1854. She will be with her grandparents in 1860 and 1870. She married Roland Lumpkin Horton December 13, 1874.

Malinda Putman born and died in the mid 1850s. She is the first child in the second marriage. From here on the children are with Malinda and all were born in Arkansas.

WILLIAM M. PUTMAN was born in 1828. In 1870 he is in Gordon County, Georgia with his wife Mary. The marriage records of Cass County show he married Mary M. Moran on October 23, 1856. There is another record that on the same date he married Mary M. Mason in Bartow County. I am not certain which is correct. In 1880 he is found in Butte County, California with his wife Mary and two children. The children were:

Berry was born in Georgia June 10, 1847 and died after 1910. Savira died between the 1900 and 1910 censuses. Based on all the census data, the children as of 1900 were:

Jacob Putman

Jacob was born March 13, 1810 in Hall County. He married Sarah H. Johnston in Hall County on February 28, 1833. Sarah was born December 21, 1816 and died at age 36 on October 8, 1853.

He and his family were in Walker County, Georgia in the 1840 census along with Sarah and the eldest three of the below listed children. In the 1850 census of DeKalb County, Alabama, he is shown with Sarah and more children. In 1860 he is in Pike County, Arkansas, widowed with only Clinton at home.

Jacob and his family must have moved after Sarah died in 1853, as John was born while they still lived in Georgia.

In 1860 they are in Mountain township, Pike County, Arkansas with only Clinton, 14, at home. Richard, now 11 is living next door with the Patton family including Narcissa who married some J. Putman. Elijah Covington Putman is also nearby.

Now, getting back to Narcissa Patton. Various documents refer to her as the widow of J. Putman and one refers to her as the widow of Jacob Putman. If she married a Jacob Putman, then it might have been this Jacob. I am not certain as all Pike County records were destroyed in fires. Another researcher states that Narcissa had a child out of wedlock and that may be the case with her here. She may just have been a sort of 'Common Law Wife'. It would appear if this was the case then she had the son Richard Putman by Jacob and out of wedlock. It does appear that Richard was her son.

A relative has a few pages of a letter written in 1861 from Jacob to his son Joseph. Here is what he was able to decipher:

He then married Emma Idee Harrison on September 14, 1904. In 1920, they are in Los Angeles California, and his mother is with him. He was jeweler and moved to Hollywood. Their only child was:

Frank R. Putman Jr. born December 31, 1906 in Texas. He married Ivy Aileen Reilly on January 7, 1928, and died in 1992.

Fred Putman born in Georgia in February 1876. In 1900 he is in Johnson County, Texas with his wife Lillian Hardisty, born in Texas January 28, 1876 with a son. In 1920 he is in Los Angeles, rooming alone and working for the Railroad. The son was:

Frederick Bryan Putman born September 23, 1897. He died in Tarrant County, Texas August 20, 1961.

Albert Anthony Putman born in Missouri May 23, 1880. He is in Parker County, Texas in 1910 and in Garvin County, Oklahoma in 1920. In 1930 they are in Los Angeles. His wife is Bertha Porter, and all the children were born in Texas. They were:

Lucille H. Putman born in 1908.

Nellie C. Putman born in April 1910.

Eloise J. Putman born in 1913.

Katherine E. Putman born in 1914.

Virginia May Putman born in 1916.

James Albert Putman born in 1918.

Kitty Putman born in Missouri in January 1884.

Jessie Putman a daughter born in Missouri in July 1888. She married Clement Byrd. They were in South Pasadena California in 1930 and her mom was with her.

WILLIAM JACOB PUTMAN, JR. born in February 1848. In 1870 he is 22 and living next door to his brother. He is with the family of Monroe and Mary Burch. In 1880 he is in Tarrant County, Texas with a wife Elizabeth Ann Farmer and they have two children. In 1900, he is in Eastland County, Texas with Elizabeth and three children. In 1910 he has died, and Betty Ann is Brown County, Texas living with her daughter Mollie. In 1920 she is in Coleman County, Texas, and living with her son Charles. Best I can determine, these are the children:

Charles B. Putman born in 1877. In 1900 he is at home with his wife Emily Alice Strickland living with them. In 1910 and 1920 they are in Coleman County. In 1920 his widowed mom Betty Ann is with him. He is in Mitchell County by 1930. Their children are:

William Dalton Putman born in 1902 in Ranger, Eastland County Texas and died in November 1975. He married Frances Rogene Law and they were in Wichita, Texas in 1930.

Edgar Lee Putman born in 1904.

Mary (Mollie) Putman born in 1879 and at home in 1900. She married Robert E. Owen.

Bruce Putman born September 12, 1881 and home in 1900. He is living with his brother Charles in 1910, and I don't find him in 1920.

JOSEPH WORTH PUTMAN born in 1850. At home with his mother in Walker County, Georgia in 1870. He then seems to have gone to Texas, probably with his brother William. He was in Fort Worth, Tarrant County, as he was married and having kids around 1880. I have a letter from one of his sons, Herbert, written to Rev. Bill Putman of Houston in 1969. He relates that his father was a school teacher and newspaperman writing under the name 'Slade' at the Fort Worth Gazette. At other times he edited papers in Quanah, Texas, Weatherford, Texas, Cheyenne, Oklahoma, Miles City, Montana, Eastland, Texas. This is all I have. Herbert gives this listing of sorts of the children. In going over the Texas census records, I can better piece together this family. In 1900 through 1920 there is a Nannie J. Putman born in Dec 1856 in Tennessee living in Fort Worth with these children. In 1900 her brother Wylie Neal is there as well. So we know Joe's wife is Nancy Jane Neal. It looks like they were married in the early 1880s and he died before 1900. That's why he never made any census reports. At any rate, the family was:

Stella Putman born in March 1884 in Tarrant County, Texas. She married Rudolph Brown. In 1910 she is listed as Lillian and is back at home with mom and has a son, Browning (Brown) age 12. She may be widowed or just visiting. She is gone again in 1920.

Alonzo Neal Putman born in January 1886. In 1910 he is in Jackson County, Oklahoma with a wife named Nettie from Ohio. At that time he calls himself 'Jack' and there are no children. He is not listed in 1920, but he was there then as well. In 1930, he has a new wife Myrtle from Texas (married in 1919), and they have a son just born. He was a cotton buyer in Altus, Jackson County and died there in 1951. The son in 1930 was:

Neal Putman born in 1930. He is probably Alonzo Jr.

Herbert E. Putman born in Birdville (now Halton), Tarrant County August 7, 1887. He married Belle Gideon and is living with her folks in Fort Worth in 1910. In 1920 he is listed as Hubert E. Putman in Dallas County with his wife Belle, her mom Kate Gideon 75 IL and a son:

Jack Putman born in late 1910 or early 1911.

Josephine Putman born in 1890. She married John G. McNeeley and lived in Richland Mills, Texas. She died May 1, 1968 and is buried in Fort Worth.

Glenn Putman born July 31, 1891 in Birdville and died in Altus, Jackson County, Oklahoma on March 11, 1969. He was a cotton farmer there since 1901. In 1910 he is there with his wife Ida Manning and one son. By 1930 they have:

Harry Putman born in 1906 in Oklahoma.

Glen Putman, Jr. born in 1908.

Mary Putman born in 1910.

MARTHA PUTMAN born in 1852. At home with her mom in Walker County, Georgia 1870. She married Robert Barney Featherston and they lived near Henrietta, Texas and ranched there. Barney was born in Waldron, Arkansas December 2, 1851 and died in about 1933 probably in Wichita Falls, Texas. Adelaide died about 1915 in Clay County Texas. Here is a little history of the family written by Mattie Featherston Carey: "Robert Barney Featherston was born in 1851 at Waldron, Arkansas. He was the oldest child of the large family of George and Mary Featherston. During the Civil War the family refugeeed to Texas and settled on the Brazos River in Washington County. His father was in the army all during the war. When the war was ended they moved back to Arkansas and located near Fayetteville. When Robert was 21 years of age he was married to Adelaide Putman and to them were born 6 children; Charles, Mattie, William, Robert, Gussie and Lige. When Charles was six months old they came back to Texas, came by way of ox wagon and settled in Falls county near Chilton, there Mattie and William were born. They lived there 5 years, then moved to Ft Worth. Soon after the Texas and Pacific Railroad started building west so they went with it; stopped for awhile in the all tent city of Abilene. His father built the first house in Abilene, it was a 2 story frame building. The family occupied the upper story and had a grocery and dry goods below, but in a few months the house burned. The family barely escaped with their lives. Abilene was a wild, rough town in those days. As the railroad went on west so did the Featherstons and finally located in Socorro, New Mexico, remained there for 8 years. In 1887 they moved to Clay County 18 miles north east of Henrietta to the old Buck Dawson place, where Robert engaged in farming and stock raising. He also was in charge of his brother's ranch, (W. H. Featherston) now known as the Stanfield ranch. There Robert, Gussie, and Lige was born, the youngest child died in 1906. The mother died in 1915. The other children were all married and living in Clay and Wichita Counties at that time. William died in 1930 in Wichita Falls and in 1933 R. B. died in Wichita Falls. They are all buried in Hope Cemetery at Henrietta. Charles lived at Austin; Mattie at Nocona; Robert at Wichita Fall and Gussie at Mineola, Texas. W.H. Featherston, a brother of R. B. Featherston, came to Clay County in 1885 and bought the Buck Dawson place north east of Henrietta. He did not stay on the place long and later sold it to his brother. He with his wife (formally Miss Belle Dalmont of Abilene) moved to Canadian, Texas where they resided 3 years, then moved to Henrietta where he was associated for a number of years with the W. E. Worsham Bank. He bought what is now known as the Stanfield ranch from Greer Mills Company of Chicago. At that time this ranch consisted of 2000 acres. He also owned land in Northwest Clay County, some of it producing oil. In 1912 he moved to Los Angeles, California after selling most of his holdings in Clay County he invested in Orange Groves in California. He died there in 1925. His widow still resides in California. They had no children.” Martha had these children:

Charles Gordon Featherston born in Arkansas June 12, 1873 and died in Dallas, Texas February 8, 1962. He married Emily M. Ferguson October 28, 1896 in Clay County Texas. Emily was born August 12, 1876 and died prior to Charles. He was an oil field driller. They had:

Robert William Featherston born November 25, 1900 in Riverland, Texas and died in Omaha, Nebraska September 6, 1974. He was married to an Ellen E. in Dallas in the 1930 Census. Augusta T. Featherston ‘Gussie’ was born in August 1891.

Elijah W. Featherston ‘Lige’ was born November 15, 1895 and died October 16, 1906.

SARAH PUTMAN born in 1858.

David L. Putman

David was born in Anderson County (Pendleton District), South Carolina in 1818. This would have been on Ezekiel's stop over in his old home neck of the woods before heading to Hall County, Georgia.

Dave married Emily Tolbert in Marshall County, Alabama on July 27, 1841. He first appears in Census records in 1850 while living in Cherokee County, Alabama. At that time, there were three children.

He is in DeKalb County, Alabama with his brother William in the 1860 census of DeKalb County, Alabama. Other members of the family were there in 1850. In 1860, there are three daughters at home. I do not find him in 1870, and assume he was killed in the Civil War.

There is a land record for Homestead Land registered in Huntsville, Alabama on April 26, 1882. So, he was in Madison County in the 1880s, but I do not find him in the census data.

As of 1860 the children, all daughters, were:

in Cherokee County where a marriage record exists. She was born July 8, 1827 and died in Graham, Texas January 4, 1918. Her parents were John Prescott Brooke and Hester Bennett. Prescott was born in 1795 on board the ship Volunteer while traveling to America. Guess his birthplace was somewhere near the lost continent of Atlantis.

He is in Cherokee County, Georgia in the 1860 census with seven children. He is in Jackson County, Alabama in 1870 and in 1880 he is in Young County, Texas with Mary Ann and more kids. In 1900 he is still in Young County, Texas at age 73 with Mary Ann 72 and no more kids at home.
