JABEL PUTMAN'S SONS

South Carolina to Tennessee and Kentucky

Again in referring to the section on SOUTH CAROLINA PUTMANS, you will find JABEL PUTMAN who was a son of James and Joice Putman of Union County.

Four of Jabel's sons came to Kentucky in about 1851. They were Hiram, Noah, Simpson and James Putman. They came up from Tennessee where they had been living. These families remained in southern Kentucky and generated a whole bunch of Putman folk in the area.

Hiram, James and Noah were sons of Jabel Putman. Then there was a Simpson Putman, born in 1828 in Tennessee that shows up in early 1850 along with Hiram and Noah. In reviewing the 1840 census, I see that Jabel Putman had a young son the right age as sort of an Ooops child some eight to ten years after his last child. This is Simpson.

Noah Putman

From the volume, Kentucky Records volume 5, we find that Noah was born in North Carolina (actually it was South Carolina) on November 25, 1809 and that he was the son of Jabel and Nancy Putman. He went with his folks to Williamson County, Tennessee and there he married his wife Elizabeth Jane Carlton on July 5, 1831. Elizabeth was born December 23, 1815 in Williamson County, Tennessee. She was a daughter of Thomas Carlton and Nancy Ann Wade.

In 1840 they were in the Dyer County, Tennessee census with 3 sons and 3 daughters. His brother Hiram was still in Williamson County with 6 children. I do not find the family listed in the 1850 census in either Tennessee or Kentucky.

In the early 1850s, the family traveled north into Hopkins County, Kentucky. Hopkins and Muhlenberg counties are in southwestern Kentucky above western Tennessee. Their youngest child, Noah, was born in 1852 in Kentucky, the others were all born in Tennessee according to the 1860 census.

According to information in History of Pioneer Lexington, "Noah Putnam, age 66, born North Carolina died June 28, 1855 of pneumonia. Parent was Jabel Putnam." There was also information that he was born in 1809, son of Jabel and Nancy Putman, natives of North Carolina (again it was in South Carolina), and his widow remarried an Arnold. They had ten children. This was from Kentucky Records, vol. 5, by Cox. The estate was appraised and settled October 8, 1855.

Elizabeth Putman appears with six of her children in the 1860 Hopkins County Kentucky census. Elizabeth was living with her daughter Nancy Berry in the 1870 census of Hopkins County. She later remarried to James E. Arnold in Christian County on November 24, 1874.

Below is a list of children as worked out from the census and marriage records of Kentucky and from the efforts of Sylvada Burke:

MALISSA JANE PUTMAN born August 1, 1832. She married Giles M. Lamb in Hopkins County, Kentucky on July 9, 1850. Their children were:

SARAH M. PUTMAN born February 23, 1852 and died October 20, 1855.

Simpson Putman

Simpson was born in Tennessee in 1828. He was the youngest son born to Jabel and Nancy Putman in Williamson County, Tennessee. He was married in 1845, but I cannot locate him in any 1850 census.

He first pops up on the 1860 census of Hopkins County, Kentucky living near Noah's widow Elizabeth and her family. In 1880 he is still in Hopkins County, but later seems to have gone to Christian County just below where he was living.

His wife was Emaline Webb and they were married January 22, 1845 in Rutherford County, Tennessee. I am taking their children from the 1860 and 1880 census report. Simpson died in Hopkins County, Kentucky on January 4, 1884. Emaline was living with her son George in 1900 at age 75, born August 1824.

The children were:

WILLIAM GRANVAL PUTMAN was born January 3, 1846. He married Martha A. Sharber on December 10, 1872 in Christian County, Kentucky. They remained in Christian County all their lives. He died March 13, 1929 and Martha, born October 19, 1853, died January 26, 1926. They had eight children:

ELIZA J. PUTMAN born 1865.

James Putman

James Putman is a son of Jabel and Nancy Putman of Union County, South Carolina and a grandson of James and Joice Putman.

He was born about 1813 in Union County, South Carolina. In 1850 he is in Rutherford County, Tennessee and listed as an idiot. Oh well, every family has one somewhere.

Anyway he had a new wife named Elizabeth Ann Lamb and two sons. He and Elizabeth were married in Rutherford County, Tennessee on July 23, 1844. Elizabeth was a Crick gal who had married William Lamb before marrying James. In 1860 he was in Calloway County, Kentucky and still a little on the short side mind-wise. They had four kids by then. In 1880 he is in Marshall County, Kentucky at age 70 and widowed. In 1880 he is living with his son Hardin.

His children were:

WILLIAM LAMB PUTMAN born in 1845 in Tennessee. He was still at home in 1860 in Calloway County, Kentucky. I do not find him later. Possibly he died in the Civil War.

JOHN HENRY PUTMAN born December 15, 1845 in Rutherford County, Tennessee. He was also at home in 1860. In 1880 and 1900 he is in Marshall County, Kentucky with others of the family. His wife is Martha Harriet Jones. They were married in Marshall County on January 18, 1870. They were there in 1910, but only John, then age 74, was in the 1920 census as she died September 3, 1919 at age 57. He died himself a few days later on January 19, 1920. Children based on census reports were:

Arlena Putman born in 1871. Gone by 1900.

Elizabeth Putman born in 1872. She married William A. Ross October 16, 1887.

Mary S. Putman born in 1873. She married W. D. Wyatt December 18, 1894.

Lavinia 'Dumpsy' Putman born November 21, 1874. Home in 1900, then gone. She married F. W. Swift and died in Marshall County on August 29, 1941 at age 66.

John M. Putman born July 17, 1876, and died October 17, 1942. His wife was Sarah Ella Jones born in 1879. They were married in Marshall County January 14, 1900. They were in Calloway County in 1900, and Hardin, Marshall County by 1910 and in the 1920 and 1930 census. Their children were:

Gladys Putman born in 1900.

Freda Putman born in 1902.

Henry Putman born in 1909.

Joel Putman a twin born in 1909 and died before 1920.

Euda C. Putman born April 18, 1913.

Charlene Putman born in 1916.

Joseph Lanis Putman born September 19, 1879 (Death certificates states January 25, 1883, but was listed as 21 in 1900 in the census). Home in 1900, gone by 1910. He went out to North Dakota, and became a horse trader. He married a gal from Norway, Anne Emily Wolla October 14, 1916 in Tioga, North Dakota. In 1920 the family was in Miles City, Custer County, Montana (where all three children were born). He died in Tioga, North Dakota August 5, 1931. The children were:

Carl Putman born in 1917.

Henrietta Putman born in 1919.

Karen Putman born in 1922.

Roxie Putman born September 16, 1877. She was briefly married to Charles Greenfield guy and got divorced. She kept her maiden name though. She had a daughter Keltie in 1909 and was back home in 1910 and 1920. In 1930 her dad died and she was by herself and Keltie used the last name Greenfield then. She died November 15, 1939. Keltie signed the death certificate as Mrs. Kelt Byers.

Mollie Putman born in 1882. Home through 1920.

William James Putman born April 28, 1886, and died in November 1965. His wife was named Minnie or Mima Ruth McGregor. They lived in Hardin, Marshall County. As of 1930, their children were:

Magdalene Putman born September 10, 1910.

Joseph Putman born in 1915. Probably named for his uncle.

Ruth A. Putman born in 1922.

Martha S. Putman born in 1925.

MARY N. PUTMAN born in 1851.

HARDIN E. PUTMAN born August 7, 1857 and died January 4, 1915 in Calloway County, Kentucky. He is listed both as Hardin and as Harding. I'm not sure which is right. In 1880 he is in Marshall County, Kentucky with his wife Mary Jane Jones, born November 11, 1862, and one son. He married Mary September 3, 1877. In 1900 and 1910 he is in Calloway County again. Hardin and Mary Jane are buried in the Mount Carmel Cemetery in Calloway County. The children in these census reports were:

Luther Putman born in 1879.

Willa Putman born in 1884.

Robert Victor Putman born in 1886. Home in 1900, gone by 1910. In 1920 and 1930 he and his wife Marie are in Hickman, Fulton County, Kentucky with one son:

Robert Victor Putman, Jr. born in 1913 in Kentucky.

Nathan M. Putman born April 9, 1891 and died October 13, 1915.

Audie E. (Andy) Putman born December 6, 1896.
