

JABEL PUTMAN

He is a son of James and Joice Putman of South Carolina. Jabel Putman was born in 1775 according to his tombstone. Jabel was executor of his father's will in 1814. He then moved to Williamson County, Tennessee and is listed there in 1820 with four sons and five daughters. His named reads Jabel, Jaben and other various spellings.

His wife was named Nancy, but I do not know her last name. This was obtained from records in The Kentucky Genealogist.

In 1820 he had 4 sons and 5 daughters. He and his wife were in the 26-45 age bracket. He received land grants in Williamson County in both 1827 and 1834. In the 1830 census he seems to be listed as Jarvis, with the same four sons, one new son, but only 4 daughters. In 1840, I do not find him.

Jabel died in Williamson County, Tennessee on September 26, 1835. I do not know where or when Nancy died. He is buried in the Mt. Pleasant Church Cemetery in Eaglesville, Tennessee.

In a later record, it was stated that he and Nancy had twelve children. When he left his will, Jabel also left a plat or plan of his lands showing how he wanted his land divided between his children. On this map, he listed all the children by name, even his married daughters by their married names. It is this document that was used to determine his children.

The children were:

William Putman

He was born in 1803 in Union County. His wife was Anna G., last name unknown born in North Carolina in 1810.

He first appears in the 1840 census of Henry County, Tennessee and in 1850 is in Bedford County, Tennessee with his wife Anna and seven children, two sons and five daughters. In 1860, Anna is widowed with her two youngest daughters still at home.

He was a stone mason by trade, and died in the mid 1850s. I do not find Anna after the 1860 census.

Based on census reports and marriage records, the children were:

DAVID N. PUTMAN born in 1832. His wife was Mary Ann.

MARY ANN PUTMAN born in 1837. She married James Norvell.

SARAH JANE PUTMAN born August 22, 1838. She married Henry Warner.

WILLA ANNA PUTMAN born in 1843.

REBECCA ELIZABETH PUTMAN born in 1845. She married Calvin Featherstone and later married James Wright. This is confusing as the marriages were less than a year apart. Not certain here if she did indeed marry both. See the Tennessee Marriage Records and judge for yourself.

SCIOTA PUTMAN born in 1847. She married David Rolfe.
