

ANCESTORS AND DESCENDANTS
of
JOHANNES PUTMAN of HOLLAND

Researched, written, and typed single handedly by WARREN T. PUTMAN
of Rio Linda, California

Warren Putman spent 25 years researching the line of Johannes Putman, first immigrant Putman to America. He also researched other Putmans and Putnams, resulting in PAF file of over 32,700 people. This text document is only the first 12 generations of the Putman family from Holland. Warren has made this "book" a gift free of charge to all who want it. He will find great enjoyment in knowing that other Putmans throughout the country have discovered their lineage as a result of his efforts. Please honor him by giving credit to his work should you pass this along to others. Thank you.

Laura Greene (descendant of George "Jurry" Putman, b. 1757-8)

There is an INDEX at the end of this document, with birth/death years and corresponding ID/Paragraph numbers so that you may use your Search function of your word processor to go back and find your relative. This file is made in Microsoft WORD format. The number in BOLD just before each descendant refers to the paragraph number identified beside each person's name in the index.

The small number directly after the given name of a descendant refers to the generation number. The # number just after the person's surname refers to the RIN number in the original PAF file.

1. Rutgerus¹ PUTMAN (Attorney)[#3632/], born 1510 in Hamm, Westphalia, Germany; died 1575 in Lipstadt, Westphalia, Germany; buried 1575 in Westphalia, Germany. He married abt. 1535 in Lipstadt, Westphalia, Germany, Agnez (BOSCH) PUTMAN[#3633/], born abt. 1510; died 1588 in Lipstadt, Westphalia, Germany.

Notes for Rutgerus Putman (Attorney)

!Putman, A.H.; "History of the Family of Putman in the Netherlands" 1736; p 1. His name is written in the old records as: Rutgerus Putmanus, T.U. Licentus. He was the Advocate Fiscal and Land Stewart, for Count Van Der Lyppe.

Notes for Agnez BOSCH

!Putman, A.H.; "History of the Family of Putman in the Netherlands; 1736; p 1. We do not know her parentage.

Children of Rutgerus¹ Putman (Attorney) and Agnez BOSCH were as follows:

- + 2 i Johannes "John"² PUTMAN (Dominie)[#3634/], born 1566 in Lipstadt, Westphalia, Germany. He married Matilda (MEYER) PUTMAN[#3636/].
- 3 ii Abraham² PUTMAN (Attorney)[#3635/], born 1567 in Lipstadt, Westphalia, Germany; died 1650 in England; buried in England. !Putman, A.H.; "History of the Family of Putman in the Netherlands"; 1736; p 1. Very little is known of Abraham. He studied law and migrated to Holland. During the reformation in 1590, he migrated to London, England. It is said that he died and was buried there. He is said to have left descendants there as well.

Generation 2

2. Johannes "John"² PUTMAN (Dominie)[#3634/] (Rutgerus¹), born 1566 in Lipstadt, Westphalia, Germany; died 1658 in Goor, Holland, Netherlands; buried 1658 in Goor, Holland, Netherlands, Goor Church. He married in Holland, Netherlands, Matilda (MEYER) PUTMAN[#3636/], daughter of Jan MEYER [#3649/].

Notes for Johannes "John" Putman (Dominie)

Putman, A.H.; "History of the Family of Putman in the Netherlands"; 1736; p 1. John Putman, was a man of great and varied knowledge. He was very decided, and of strong religious opinions. He had a decided opposition to the Armenian faction, who tried all manner of misrepresentations to have him join their party. (See "Revius' History of Deventer"; 1618; p 594.) John had to leave his native place, due to his strong religious beliefs. He migrated to Markel, Holland, and kept himself concealed. John taught school there for some years, and was later appointed the Pastor of the church at Goor, Holland. John Putman's name was cast in the bell of the church of Goor, Holland, where he was buried.

Notes for Matilda Meyer

!Putman, A.H.; "History of the Family of Putman in the Netherlands"; 1736; p 1.

Children of Johannes "John"² Putman (Dominie) and Matilda Meyer were as follows:

- + 4 i Rutger³ PUTMAN (Dominie)[#3637/], born 1597 in Goor, Holland, Netherlands. He married Joanna (VANDENBURGH) PUTMAN[#3639/].
- 5 ii Abraham³ PUTMAN[#3638/], born abt. 1600 in Holland, Netherlands; died aft. 1674. !Putman, A.H.; "History of the Family of Putman in the Netherlands"; 1736; p 1. Very little is known about Abraham, except that he outlived his brother, John, as he was the one who placed the stone over his brother in the church at Delden. It is surmised that he remained in the Netherlands for the balance his life.

Generation 3

4. Rutger³ PUTMAN (Dominie)[#3637/] (Johannes "John"², Rutgerus¹), born 1597 in Goor, Holland, Netherlands; died 1674 in Delden, Holland, Netherlands; buried 1674 in Delden, Holland, Netherlands, Delden Church. He married in Holland, Netherlands, Joanna (VANDENBURGH) PUTMAN[#3639/], daughter of Paul VANDENBURGH [#3658/].

Notes for Rutger Putman (Dominie)

Putman, A.H.; "History of the Family of Putman in the Netherlands"; 1736; p 1. Rutger was Chaplain with the Landgraf of Hesse Cassel, and after the war, he settled at Dresden, Holland, and was made pastor there by the appointment of the Landgraf. Rutger was a Pastor at Weerselo, Holland, and later at Goor, Holland. He was a very courageous Pastor and very learned. He became the Pastor of the Delden, Holland church in 1634, and remained there for some forty years. He was an exceptionally well educated man, and a famous teacher. As the enemy ruled the country, and the papal authorities were using the Pastor's house and furniture, he lived in the council chambers at City hall. When he died in 1674, his son Paul could not obtain permission to bury him in the church yard, and he was buried in the Heyden cemetery. After peace was declared, Paul was able to place the remains of his father under the Pastor's chair, in the church at Delden. A stone was placed over him by his brother Abraham.

Notes for Joanna VANDENBURGH

!Putman, A.H.; "History of the Family of Putman in the Netherlands"; 1736; p 1. Joanna was from Amsterdam.

Children of Rutger³ Putman (Dominie) and Joanna VANDENBURGH were as follows:

- 6 i Sarah⁴ PUTMAN[#3640/], born in Holland, Netherlands. She married in Holland, Netherlands, Joachim LIENS[#3659/], born in Zeeland, Holland, Netherlands. !Putman, A.H.; "History of the Family of Putman in the Netherlands"; 1736; p 2.
- + 7 ii Johannes⁴ PUTMAN ("Jan")[#1/], born 1645 in Leyden?, So. Holland, Netherlands. He married Cornelia Andriese (BRATT) PUTMAN[#2/].
- + 8 iii Paulus "Paul"⁴ PUTMAN (Dominie)[#3641/], born 1648 in Holland, Netherlands. He married Alida (BOGERINK) PUTMAN[#3642/].

Generation 4

7. Johannes⁴ PUTMAN ("Jan")[#1/] (Rutger³, Johannes "John"², Rutgerus¹), born 1645 in Leyden?, So. Holland, Netherlands; died 9 Feb 1690 in Schenectady, Albany Co., New York, Killed by Indian; buried 12 Feb 1690 in Rotterdam, Albany Co., New York, Cobblestone Ch.. He married in 1670/75 in Albany, Albany Co., New York, Cornelia Andriese (BRATT) PUTMAN[#2/], born 1655 in Rensselaer, Rensselaer Co., New York; died 9 Feb 1690 in Schenectady, Albany Co., New York, Slain by Indians, daughter of Arent Andriese BRATT [#9/] and Catalyntje Andriese (DE VOS) BRATT [#10/].

Notes for Johannes Putman ("Jan")

Putman, A.H.; "History of the Putman Family in the Netherlands"; 1736; p 2. Here we find a John Putman, born 1645, to Rutger Putman and an unlisted mother. This document was translated in December of 1898, by DeWitt C. Putman. It was published in "The Putnam Leaflets"; Vol. III; # 2; in May of 1899, but copies are scarce and hard to find. Due to the fact that so few copies are still extant, this manuscript was reprinted and indexed in 1989, by the compiler of this record. [W.T.P.]

NOTE: Copies of the reprint have been distributed to the Library of Congress, and to several of the large genealogical societies". [W.T.P.]

Genealogical records of The Holland Society of New York, as quoted in the "Memoirs" of Joseph Wendell Putman, living in 1989, age 93, see page 2, Quote: "As indicated in the genealogical records of the Holland Society of New York, our family history in America begins with the arrival (about 1665) in New Amsterdam, of young Johannes Putman, a cabin boy on a Dutch ship. The prospects for a Dominie's son in Holland were not good in that period, so he jumped ship in New Amsterdam and, not relishing arrest and return to Holland, made his way to the outpost stockade of Schenectady. In the next few years, he met and fell in love with Cornelia Bradt (or Bratt). in the 1670's or 1680's they were married and lived in a cabin in the southeast corner of the stockade (now the corner of Union and Ferry Streets). As a son of a Dominie, I suppose he must have had a fair education, but I have no record of how Cornelia and Johannes Putman lived". End quote.

Callaghan, E.B.; "Documentary History, State of New York"; 1849; Vol 1; p 305. Quote: "List of ye people kild and destroyed by ye French of Canida and there Indians at Skinnechtady between Sat. and Sun. ye 9th. of February, 1689/90. Joh. Potman kild and his wife kild and her scalp taken off". End quote.

Callaghan, E.B.; "Documentary History, State of New York"; 1849; Vol 2; p 201. Quote: "List of goods sent from New York and received from Mons. Jan Hendricksen Brujn and Johannes

Proofost, to be distributed among the refugees of Schoonech- tede, to wit: LIST OF OSENBURG LINEN "Johannes Pootman's children.... 70 ells". End quote.

Note: The ell was used chiefly for the measurement of cloth in England. It was equal to 45 inches by our measure. [W.T.P.]

Pearson, J; "Genealogies of the First Settlers of Schenectady" 1873; p 142, 143 Quote:
"POOTMAN (Putman)..Johannes (Jan), sixteen years of age in 1661, was app- rentised by Jan Hendrickse Van Bael for three years to Philip Hendrickse Brouwer for his food and clothes. He married Cornelia, daughter of Arent Andries Bratt and Catalyntje De Vos. His home lot, in the village, was on the north corner of Union and Ferry streets, having 100 feet frontage on the former street; later he purchased the 100 foot lot next west, of Jan Roeloffse (), son of the celebrated Anneke Janse." ( Jan Roeloffse De Goyer. [W.T.P.]) "On the fatal night of the 8th. of February, 1690, both Pootman and his neighbor, Roloffse, with their wives, were slain by the French and Indians. The following children were living in 1715, when they received their mother's port- ion of her father's estate. (101 Pounds, 13 Shillings, 4 Pence.) Arent; Maritie she married Stephen Beduet; Victoor; David; Cornelius; and Catalyntje, who marr- ied Cornelius Post". End quote.

Frothingham, W.; "History of Montgomery County"; 1892; p 110. Quote: "Putman (Pootman), Johannes, (Jan), born 1645, lived in Albany 1661-- age 16 years. Moved to Schenectady 1662; married Cornelia Bradt, daughter of Arent A. Bradt. Both massacred by Indians 1690." End Quote.

Cady, Rev. Putnam; Unpublished papers; 1897; p 2; Montgomery Hist.; file 57K. Quote:
"Jan Roeloffse, the oldest son of the celebrated Anneke Janse, by her first marriage. He sold subject to the life estate, of himself and wife. They had no children." End quote. [Jan Roeloffse De Goyer, and his wife, were both slain during the Schenectady massacre of February 8/9, 1690.] [W.T.P.]

Putnam, E.; "A History of the Putnam Family in England and America"; 1908; Vol. II; pp 101 & 102. Quote: "Jan or Johannes Putman, of Schenectady, was the founder of the principal ,utman family in America. His parentage is at present unknown. It is supposed he was born in Holland in 1645. In 1661, he was 16 years of age, and at that date a resident of Albany. He and his wife, were killed by Indians at the burn- ing of Schenectady, 8 February, 1690. He married Cornelia, the daughter of Arent Andriese and Catalyntje Bratt, of Schenectady." "On 14 September, 1661, Jan Hendrickse Van Bael apprenticed Jan Putman for three years to Philip Hendrickse Brouwer. "Soo heeft Jan Hendr. Van Bael besteet ende Philip Hendr. Brouwer aen genomen Johannes Pootman, jong gesel out jegenwordich omtrent sestien jaaren" to serve said Brouwer, "van drye achtereen volgende jaaren". Although but sixteen, Jan signed his name "in a clear and beautiful hand", a somewhat unusual accomplishment for the time and place. Upon Brouwer's removal to Schenectady, the boy went with him. Brouwer died early in 1664. Eighty gulden a year was the recompense Putman received in lieu of outfit. Pearson already quoted largely, states that the house lot of Jan Putman, was on the north corner of Union and Ferry Streets, having a front of 100 feet on the former street; later he bought the 100 feet next west of Jan Roeloffse, son of the well known Anneke Janse". (See Cady quote above.) "In Colonial times the law of primogeniture prevailed in New York, thus the right to his father's lands fell to Arent, the eldest son. He, on 6 April, 1709, conveyed a part of the above described land to his brother Victoor". End.

!NOTE: A gulden was a unit of money in the Netherlands. It was worth about 28 cents, when compared to our monies. The eighty gulden would have amounted to about $22.40 a year in those times. [W.T.P.]

!Reynolds, Cuyler; "Hudson and Mohawk Genealogical"; Vol. 1; p 179. Quote: Jan Putman was born in Holland, in 1665, and came to America in 1661. He married Cornelia, daughter of Arent Andries Bradt and Catalyntje De Vos. He and his wife were killed in the Schenectady massacre of February 8, 1690."

!Ibid, p 1089.

!Putman, C.W.; Unpublished manuscript; 1914; p 1; Schenectady Historical Soc. Quote:
"Jan and Cornelia were both slain, and she was scalped, 8 February, 1690, during the Schenectady massacre. They are both buried under a boulder, in the "Old" Cobblestone Church yard, Rotterdam, Albany County, New York". End quote.

!Putman, G.W.; "Genealogy of David Putman"; 1916; pp 7 & 55; Schenectady Hist. Quote: "Johannes Pootman was born in 1645. In 1661, being 16 years old, was apprentised to P. H. Brower of Albany, N.Y., for three years, signing his name to the papers in a clear, beautiful hand, from which we infer, that he was well educated, an uncommon thing in those days. He was then living in Albany, N.Y. He moved to Schenectady in 1662, being one of it's first settlers. He married Cornelia Bratt, a daughter of Arent Andres Bratt, the Vice-governor of Rensselaerwyck, one of the prominent families of the state". "Jan was orphan master, Deacon of the church, hired the minister, and was Justice of the Peace, under the Leyster administration, those being the most prominent positions in Schenectady in those days. On February 8th., 1690, he and his wife were killed at Schenectady in that awful Indian Massacre of that date, which is recorded in American history. In 1715, the following children were living: Marite, married Stephen Bedent; Aaron; Victor; David; Cornelius; and Catalyntje, who married Cornelius Post". "It is believed that he came from one of the prominent and noble families of Holland, and investigations have been made or attempted to prove it, but with what results is unrecorded. He owned considerable land in Schenectady, a part of which was sold later by one of his sons to Union College". End quote.

!Putnam, Eben; "A History of the Putnam Family in England and America"; 1908; Vol. II; p 101. Quote: "Catalyntje De Vos was three times married, first to Bratt (by whom she had: Aefie, married to Claas Frederichse Van Petten; Ariaantje, married first Helmer Otten; second, 1676, Reyer Schermerhorn; Andries, killed by the Indians, 1690; Cornelia, born 1655, married Jan Pootman; Samuel; Dirk). Second to Barent Jans Van Ditmar, who was killed in 1690. And third, in 1691, to Claas Janse Van Bockhoven. Her will was made in 1699, but she lived till 1712. In the latter year a division of her estate was made between the following parties, by agreement dated August 11th.: Anne, Arent Bratt (son of Andries), Samuel Bratt, Dirk Bratt, Claas Van Petton and Eva (Aefie), "Syn-wyf", Reyer Schermerhorn and Arianetie his wife, Arant Pootman in behalf of Victor Pootman, David Pootman, Maria Pootman "wyf Van Steven Cofoooy", Cattolina Pootman "wyf of Cornelius Post" Children of Cornelia Bratt, "housewife" of Johannis Pootman, etc." End quote.

!NOTE: Thus it will be seen that Pootman was connected with the leading families of Schenectady Patent, particularly the Schermerhorns and Bratts. In the division above mentioned among the signers were Cornelius Pootman and David "Potman". The deed was recorded May, 1715, at Albany, and may be found in book I.

Very little is known about Arent, he sold land in Schenectady, to his brother Victoor, in 1709; and in 1720 was a freeholder there. In 1713, he is described as a "Weaver." June, 1733, he leased of Peter Brower, a tract of land which said Brower had from an Indian, July, 1730, and which was situated on the south side of the Mohawk River, beginning at Ochrachqua, or Auries Creek. He probably removed thither at that time, as he was living in 1754, in the "Maquaas Country." End quote.

Notes for Lysbet Akkerman

!"The Trail of the Huguenots"; 1966; Reaman, G. Elmore, pp 211-212. The Akerman Family, was originally a French Hugueneot family. The Akermans, David and his family, had moved to Holland from Berlicum, in the District of Bois-Le-Duc, in North Brabant, which was in the southwestern part of the Netherlands. The spelling of the name, Bois-Le-Duc, indicates that it was a French speaking district.

!The Akerman family was in the earliest group of the Dutch settlers who arrived in the New World.

!The first immigrant to America of the Akerman family was David Akerman, who after sailing from Amsterdam, Holland, in the Netherlands, disembarked on 8 April, 1662, from the vessel "D'VOS" in New Amsterdam with six children.

!"D'VOS" was a Dutch name, which when translated means "The Fox."

!"New York Genealogical and Biographical Record"; Vol. 65, pp 2-11. Two sons who were accompanying David were: Abraham and Lodewyck Akerman.

!"Old Dutch Church of Kingston"; 1980; Hoes, Roswell R., p 23. Lysbet Akkerman, daughter of Lodewyck Davids Akkerman and Jannetje Jacobse Blyck, was baptized 7 December, 1684, at the Kingston Reformed Dutch Church, Kingston, Ulster County, New York. She married Arent J. Putman, circa 1708.

Well, I will put that yarn to rest and also that claim I'm a descendant of David. I've recently unraveled David's line that has for three hundred years been undeciphered. David did not go to Canada, but to New Jersey! Although not the earliest settlers of Monmouth County, New Jersey, the Dutch were present in sufficient numbers there, that religious services were held in 1699. From then until 1709, local services were conducted on occasion by ministers from New York. In the latter year, Rev. Joseph Morgan became the first pastor of the Freehold and Middleton Congregations. "Freemen above Five and Twenty years of Age." were selected as jurors for the trial, and this included David Potman. The law stated: "The persons qualified to be Freemen ... shall be every planter and inhabitant dwelling and residing within the Province, who has aquired rights to and is in possession fifty acres of ground, and hath cultivated ten acres of it; or in Boroughs, who have a house and three acres; or have a house and land only hired, if he can prove he had fifty pounds in stock of his own..." David Potman and wife 22 Feb., 1712/13 David Potman Fyke 24 Oct., 1714 David Potman Child 9 April, 1721 David Potman Child "Fred Sisser, editor of "The Sommerset County Genealogical Quarterly", of New Jersey, researched a family that descends from David Potman, mainly that of Thomas Aten, whose wife was Sophia Potman. According to Mr. Sisser, Sophia was born December of 1712, so it appears Sophia is a nickname for Fyke. Mr. Sisser informed me that a deed from Hunterdon County, New Jersey, argues that "Helena" was David's wife."

"The Genealogical Magazine of New Jersey"; Vol. 37; p 55. This record discloses that David C. Potman, was a freeholder in Reading Township, Hunterdon County, New Jersey, in 1741. In 1740, an inhabitant, Tom Bell, impersonated the clergy in the county, and a trial placed on the docket determined his guilt. "Freemen above Five and Twenty years of Age." were selected as jurors for the trial, and this included David Potman. The law stated: "The persons qualified to be Freemen ... shall be every planter and inhabitant dwelling and residing within the Province, who has aquired rights to and is in possession fifty acres of ground, and hath cultivated ten acres of it; or in Boroughs, who have a house and three acres; or have a house and land only hired, if he can prove he had fifty pounds in stock of his own..."  sponsors were: Ficktoor Potman and Marretje Post, wed. !Note: The above
 Ficktoor (Victor) Potman (Putman) and Marretje (Maria) Post, were apparently man and wife, but I am uncertain where they fit in the overall picture. This presents a mystery to me. If Victor and Maria were already wed in 1705, then they were both born as early as 1680. The only Victor, I have a record of, from that early time period, is Capt. Victor Janse Putman, son of Johannes (Jan) Putman and Catalyntje Bratt, who married Grietje Mabie, 13 December, 1706. I doubt very much that she was the first wife of Capt. Victor Janse Putman. It is my belief that this record was confused when transcribed. [Warren T. Putman]

- + 58 ii Elias⁶ POST[#54/], born abt. 1708 in New York. He married Maria (VAN EPS) POST[#57/].

15. He married (2) on 8 Jan 1717 in Deventer, Holland, Netherlands, Hermana (ROUSE) PUTMAN[#3664/], born in Holland, Netherlands, daughter of Mister ROUSE (Burgomaster) [#3682/].

Notes for Adolph Hendrick Putman

!Putman, A.H.; "History of the Family of Putman in the Netherlands"; 1736; p 2. Adolph is mentioned on several pages of the manuscript; he was the one who compiled it. I have reprinted and indexed this manuscript. Copies are at the Library of Congress, Washington, D.C.; Schenectady Historical Society, Schenectady, NY; Montgomery Historical Society, Fonda, NY; LDS Archives, Salt Lake City, Utah; Everton Publishers, Logan, Utah; Peoria Public Library, Peoria, Ill.; Will County Historical Society, Lockport, Ill.; Illinois State Genealogical Society, Springfield, Ill.; and many other genealogical societies. Adolph was appointed as an advisor to Her Royal Highness, the Princess of Orange and her children, in 1725. This was later made a permanent appointment by His Royal Highness, the Prince of Orange. Here we see a possible connection to the claim of the Mohawk Valley Putmans, that they were indeed connected to the family of the Prince of Orange, of Nassau. His Royal Highness, the Prince of Orange, and her Royal Highness, the Princess of Orange, were both God parents of Adolph and Hermana's son, Willem Putman, who was baptized in their presence, on the 6th. day of March, 1737.

Notes for Roelinda Maria KRUL

!Putman, A.H.; "History of the Family of Putman in the Netherlands"; 1736; p 3. Roelinda M. & Adolph H. were married by his father, Dominie Paulus Putman. Roelinda died in the first year of their marriage. There was no issue recorded.
