Notes for Julia Rebeccah Putman

!1860 census: Wilmington, Will County, Illinois. Julia is listed as 9 IL, and is with her parents.

!In 1865: On April 16, 1865, Julia R. is said to have been about 14 years of age and was living with her mother in Belleville, Wayne County, Michigan. Her father, Hiram B., was still in the service. Julia B. eloped on that date, with a George Worden, age 21, and even though this marriage was against her mothers wishes, they lived with her mother for a few months, before he left her and went to Illinois. Her parents and their family moved to Mississippi in the late part of 1865.

!Marriage and Divorce: Washington County, Mississippi, Chancery Court Records, Pkt. # 289. Julia R. Worden vs George Worden. divorce case. O/B filed by Julia's father, H. B. Putnam (sic), vs her husband, George who is a non resident of Mississippi. Facts about the family: Julia and her family, consisting of her mother, and others, lived in Wayne County, Michigan. Her father, H. R. Putnam (sic), was away as a member of the National Army, in the south. On April 16, 1865, Julia, then aged 14, eloped with George, then aged 21, against her mother's wishes. They lived with her family for a few months, then he left her and went to Illinois. In late 1865, Mr. Putman moved his family to Washington County, Mississippi. Julia joined them there in March of 1866, and her daughter, of whom she seeks custody, was born there in late March of 1866. Depositions: (1) Hiram B. Putnam (sic), father of Julia, age 50, a merchant and a resident of Greenville, Mississippi, who lived in Illinois before moving to Michigan. (2) Mrs. Elizabeth A. Putnam (sic), mother of Julia, aged 45, wife of Hiram, resides Greenville, Mississippi, lived at Belleville, Michigan. (3) Charles Putnam (sic), age 21, a farmer, resident of Greenville, Mississippi, brother of Julia, "I was in the army when they were married." The decree was granted in May of 1869.

!Marriage: Washington County, Mississippi Records, book A, page 122 F. A. Poggel (sic) to Julia R. Putnam (sic), bondsman, C. F. Putnam (sic). C. F. Putnam, was her brother, Charles Francis Putman. Their licence was issued 11 December, 1869, and they were married 12 December, by Stevenson Archer.

!1870 census: Greenville, Washington County, Mississippi. Julia is listed as Julia Poggel 19 IL. She and her husband and child are living in the household of her parents.

!Death: "Greenville Times" Greenville, Washington County, Mississippi. Mrs. Julia Pogel (sic), died of yellow fever, on the 11th. of September, 1878.

!In april of 1861, Charles H. enlisted in Company I, of the Fourth Regiment, of Wisconsin Cavalry Volunteers. He was the second man to volunteer from Sparta. His services were rejected on account of his being under age, but he soon after enlisted in the Third Wisconsin Cavalry, with which he served until he was discharged in February of 1863, on account of injuries he received in the railroad wreck of 29 March, 1862, near Chicago, Illinois. After he recovered in the fall of 1863, Charles H. then enlisted in the twenty-fifth Wisconsin Infantry, commanded by Colonel Jeremiah Rusk, who later became the Secretary of Agriculture, and Charles H. then served with the regiment until the first months of 1865. He then transferred to the Twelfth Wisconsin Infantry, with which he remained until he mustered out of service in 1865.

!Charles H. served under General Sherman on his march to the sea. He was wounded in the knee by a minnie ball in the peach orchard in front of Kenesaw Mountain, in Georgia, and he carried that scar the remainder of his life.

!He took part in the grand review of troops at Washington, District of Columbia, and after arriving home, he was married to Miss Sarah M. Smith.

Notes for William Brower Putman

!Frothingham, W.; "History of Montgomery County"; 1892; p 20; Fonda Archives. Quote: "Attended the village schools and worked on the farm until 1853; conducted hired farm in Amsterdam from 1853 until 1856; then moved to Mohawk that year; bought 75 acre farm and remained there until after 1892; Interested in politics but was never an office seeker; he married Mary E. German, of Schoharie, March 4 1853. Children: Henry of Johnstown; Alvin of Tribes Hill; Ira of Mayfield; Emory of Fultonville; Adelbert of Mayfield; William at home in 1892." (Mohawk).

Notes for Mary Esther Germain

!Frothingham, W.; "History of Montgomery County"; 1892; p 20; Fonda Archives. Quote: "Putman, W. Brower, Mohawk, Tribes Hill p.o., was born in the town of Johnstown, June 5, 1829, and is a descendant of Victor Putman, who held the grant for the mile square of land in the town of Amsterdam. Mr. Putman's boyhood was spent with his parents. He attended the village schools and assisted on the farm until 1853, when he hired a farm in Amsterdam and conducted it three years. He then moved to the town of Mohawk, and in 1872, bought the farm which he now occupies and which contains seventy-five acres. He has greatly improved the place during the twenty years of his ownership, and has built a very fine house, also new barns and other outbuildings, rendering it double in value since he made the purchase. March 4, 1853, he married Mary E. German of Schoharie, and they are the parents of six children: Henry of Johnstown; Alvin of Tribes Hill; Ira of Mayfield; Emory of Fultonville; Adelbert of Mayfield; and William who lives at home. Mr. Putman has always been interested in politics, but never an office seeker. His ambition has been to reach the point where he now stands as a successful farmer; one characterized by industry and good management, elements which are so essential to those who cultivate the soil." End quote.

!1928 Death notice: "The Rushville Times", published 1 February, 1928. CHAS. E. PUTMAN DIED IN PASADENA, CALIFORNIA. From a Pasadena, California, paper we take this news of the death of Charles E. Putman, whose parents were pioneer residents of Rushville: Charles E. Putman passed away at the home of his sister, Mrs. Fairfax Scott, 833 North Michigan Avenue, after an illness of ten days. At his bedside were his two daughters, Mrs. Edward O. Ogier, of Ventura, and Mrs. Charles M. Davis, of Long Beach. Also two sisters, Miss Alice Putman, and Mrs. Scott. Mr. Putman was born in Rushville, Illinois, January 4, 1857, and was married to Elizabeth Duncan, August 26, 1885, in storia, Illinois. He came to Pasadena in 1887, and went into the furniture business, later being interested in real estate. Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon at Ives & Warren. Rev. Alfred Inwood, an old friend of the family, officiating. His words and the many floral offerings expressed the esteem in which Mr. Putman was held. Burial was at the Mountain View Cemetery, beside his wife, daughter, and father.

!"The Putman Family" November/December 1995, Volume 6, issue 6. CLAUD AND JENNIE PUTNAM Claud A. Putnam, was born 25 December, 1879, in Wells Township, Tuscola County, Michigan. On 22 September, 1904, he married Jennie Brady, the daughter of Michael Brady, and Sara Rozella Knight. Michael was born in Canada in October of 1839, the son of an Irish Immigrant, Esward Brady. Sarah Knight, was the daughter of Samuel Knight, and Philemia Byington. Samuel was born in Canada in 1819, the son of an immigrant from England.

!Claud A. was well known for his stone work, which included the W. J. Moore, and the John McDurmon homes in Caro Michigan. Maqny of Claud's children and grandchildren worked in stone work and masonry along with construction and real estate.

!Claud A. originally spelled his last name as Putman, but he changed it to Putnam. Tradition says that another Claud Putman lived nearby, and since their names were the same, their mail was often mixed up. So, Claud changed his name to Putnam.

!Claud A. and Jennie worked a farm and a stable situated on the south 20 acres of the Old Putman Homestead, while the north 20 acres served as pasture land.

!Claud A. died 17 February, 1955. The local newspaper, "The Tuscola Advertiser." printed his obituary. CLAUD ALEXANDER PUTMAN, who had been a Wells Township resident all of his life and died at his home thursday morning of this week after a year of illness. The funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Bethel Stone Church, in Wells, with Rev. Davis of Garden City officiating. Burial will be made in the East Dayton Cemetery. Mr. Putman was born December 25, 1879, in Township, and all of his working life he has been a stone mason. He was married September 18, 1904, to Jennie Brady, in Caro, and the couple celebrated their golden wedding anniversary last year.

Notes for Jennie May Brady

!Mark Putnam, Caro, Michigan.

!Jennie loved to cook and was known to have baked eighteen loaves of bread at one time. Some of her meals included bean soup, fried potatoes, rabbit, and pheasant.

!Jennie died 28 September, 1975. Her obituary follows. Funeral services for Jennie May Putman, 89, will be conducted at 2 P. M. from the Bethel Lower Light Church. Rev David Shoafer, of the Bible Baptist Church, Mayville, will officiate with burial following in East Dayton Cemetery. Jennie Brady was born 7 October, 1855, in Wells. She married the late Claud Putman, on 22 September, 1904, in Dayton Township. He predeceased her in 1955. Mrs. Putman died 28 September, at the Tuscola County Medical Care Facility. She had been a life long resident of Tuscola County.
