His wife died when her son, Aaron (Arent) was six years of age. Ernestus Putman, of New Madison, Ohio, writing in 1829 and again in 1834, gives the following account of his grandfather and his family. "My grandfather's name was John Putman, I do not know my grandmother's name, she died when my father was but six years old. They lived in the western part of New York, which was then a wilderness. Grandfather being unable to keep the family together, I have knowledge of but five of the nine, my father now living at Schenectady, uncles David and Henry, and my aunts Mary and Sarah. A short time after the commencement of the Revolution, my grandfather and David were captured by the Indians and the old man, not well able to travel, killed. David they kept three years, when he made his escape and came home. He after- ward went into some of the New England states and there married. He was killed in a well, while cleaning it. I do not know what became of his children. Uncle Henry went to Canada. He and wife are dead leaving descendants there." Ernestus left Schenectady about 1800. !Teunis Putman was a Revolutionary War Patriot, and a member of class in the Col. Abraham Wemple's Regiment of Militia. Teunis was too old to serve in the army or the militia himself, but his class, of which he was a member, proved their patriotism by engaging and providing "An able bodied man." This man enlisted to serve during the war in the New York Line, in accordance with an act passed in March of 1782. Lt. Ephraim Snow acknowledged receipt of this man at Albany, on May 15th., 1782, and the members of Teunis' class became entitled to a "War Bounty", by virtue of their employing this soldier.

He married on 31 May 1799 in Schenectady, Albany Co., New York, Schen., RD Ch., Elizabeth (RYNEX) PUTMAN[#601/], born abt. 1771 in Schenectady, Albany Co., New York, daughter of Andrew RYNEX [#602/] and Maria (SMITH) RYNEX [#603/]. !McConville, H.; Unpublished Ms.; pp 7 & 18; Schenectady Historical Society. !Note: This is the only CALEB Putman that I have ever uncovered in the New York area. There is a listing in the Pine Grove Cemetery reading which lists a Polly Gilchrist (formerly wife of Caleb) died 5 February, 1864, in 76th. year. This would place her birth year as 1788, which is close to Caleb's birth year of ca. 1779. I have yet to determine if she was indeed married to this Caleb Putman, and if so, was she his second wife? Caleb Putnam, and Elizabeth Rynix, both of Schenectady !McConville, H.; Unpublished Ms.; pp 7 & 18; Schenectady Historical Society. !NOTE: I believe that Elizabeth was Caleb's first wife, and that she died at a relatively young age. In which case, Caleb remarried to Polly Gilchrist. Since I do not have a death date on Elizabeth, I am unable to determine which of the children were born by her, and which were born by Polly. All of this is supposition on my part, and must be considered as such only. [W.T. Putman]
