!Wilson, Thomas B., "The Ontario Register", January, 1968. "A Note On the Anguish Family of New York, Pennsylvania, and Ontario"

!Jacob Anguish, born 1720/1724, served in Butler's Rangers during the Revolutionary War, and died soon after the peace as a direct result of privations endured during that conflict. He had lived in the Wyoming Valley of the Susquehanna River in Pennsylvania where he settled about 1770 or so, probably going there from tyron County, New York. I am not working on the Anguish family history, but while doing research on another family, I came across a deed in the Luzerne County Clerk's Office which links members of the Anguish family in Ontario and in Montgomery County, New York. On 11 February, 1800, a half proprietor's right, late the property of Jacob Enguish, deceased "being 300 acres in Plymouth on the Shawana Flats, Luzerne County, Pennaylvania, was sold to Joseph House, of Minden, Montgomery County, New York; and Jacob Enguish, Henry Enguish, Frederick Garrison and Barbara his wife, Henry Putman and Hannah his wife, and Peter Law[r] and elizabeth his wife, all of Lincoln County [now Welland county], Upper Canada." SEE: "Luzerne County Deeds, Vol. 7, page 130."

!It becomes clear from this deed that Jacob Anguish was survived not only by the children in Ontario, named in the deed, but by two others, John Enguish and Maria, the wife of Peter Eigenbradt, in Montgomery County, New York.

He located in his young manhood in the town of Cherry Valley, Otsego county, NY. The town is now Roseboom. I have been unable to obtain his marriage or to whom. One of his grandsons thinks her maiden name was Caroline Winnie. His brother Abraham's daughter, Alida, says her name was Katalina, but she did not know the last part. It is possible they are both right as the name of Winnie was among the old settlers of Tribes Hill, and as the name Katalina was a Holland Dutch name, it may have been changed to Caroline. He was a farmer and settled on a farm about two miles from South Valley, NY., on what is locally called "Honey Hill," where their children were born and where they died. Their interment is in a private cemetery on their son-in-law's farm, near the old home. There were born to them eight children, two sons and six daughters: Francis, William, Margaret, Anna, Hannah, Elenor, Catharine and Agnes." End quote.
