!Baptismal sponsors; Dirck (Derrick) Putman & Neeltje Van Brocklin, his Wife.

!McConville, H.; Unpublished Ms.; Schenectady Hist. Soc.; Schenectady, NY

!Simeon moved from Sharon, Schoharie Co., to Batavia, Genesee Co., NY, in 1826. This information was found in Rev. William's Auto-biography; see Lansing State Journal, May 3, 1913; page 7.

!1830 census: Batavia County, New York. 1 male 30 and under 40; (Simeon); 1 female 30 and under 40; (Hannah); 1 female 10 and under 15; (Alida); 2 males 5 and under 10; (William & a brother).

!The first family was broken up and scattered after the death of his first wife, Hannah; 2 July, 1839. We are not certain as to the total number of children born to the first union.

!Simeon and the children have not been found on the 1840 census as yet.

!1850 census: Bowne Township, Kent County, Michigan. Simeon is listed as 56 NY, Blacksmith. His wife, Maria Hannah is 27 NY. The children are: Hannah 8 NY, John 5 NY, and Lovina 1 MI.

!1860 census: Bowne Township, Kent County, Michigan. Simeon is listed as 67 NY, Farmer. His wife, Hannah, is 37 NY. The children are: Hannah 18 NY, John 17 NY, Lovina 12 MI, Lucy 9 MI, Mary 5 MI, and Eliza is 9 months MI.

!1870 census: Bowne Township, Kent County, Michigan. Hanna is listed as 47 NY, a widow. The children are: Hannah 28 NY, John 27 NY, Lovina 22 MI, Lucy 19 MI, Mary 15 MI, Eliza 11 MI, and Eva 8 MI. There is a Maria Putman, 82; born NY (1788) living there also. We are not certain what her relationship might be to Simeon. We have found a Maria (Maritje) Shearman, who was baptised 6 April, 1788, Reformed Dutch Church, Claversock, Columbia County, New York. She was the daughter of Peter Schearman and Angenitje (Agnes) Bresee. We have yet to find to which Putman she was married.

!Simeon is not listed on the 1870 census, so it is presumed that he has died prior to 1870.

!There is a death recorded in the Kent County vital records on a Maria Hannah (Shearman) Putman; died 15 Oct., 1872, of old age, ae. 87, at Bowne Twp., Kent County, Michigan. (She was born 6 April, 1788)

Notes for Richard R. Putnam

!Census: 1850; Steuben Twp., Oneida County, New York; p 382.

!Reynolds, Cuyler; "Hudson and Mohawk Genealogical"; Vol. III; p 1090. Quote: "Richard R., son of Gerrit D Putman, was born about 1800, near Rome, New York. He settled in the town of Steuben, Oneida County, New York. He was a farmer and tanner. He was a member of the Baptist church and served as Chorister for many years. A noted feature of the Steuben family was their fine voices. The father, with his deep bass, and the others supplying the other parts, made the church singing a most interesting feature. He died at the home of his daughter, near Rome, New York, aged about ninety years. He changed the spelling of his name to Putnam. He married in the town of Herkimer, Oneida County, New York, Abby Young, born in Steuben, Oneida County, New York, 1804. She was a woman of delicate constitution and died prior to her husband, aged seventy-four. She was also a Baptist. Children:..." End quote.

Notes for John Henry Putman

!Source: Sue Kendrick, 14808 SW 125 Court, Miami, FL, 33186, April 16, 1995.

!1850 census: Spafford, Onondaga County, New York. John H. is listed as 22 NY, and is with his father.

!"History of Contra Costa California" 1926, states that he left New York in 1853, and embarked for California via the Isthmus of Panama.

!"San Francisco Passenger list", Vol 1, indicates J. Putnam arrived in San Francisco on 5 March, 1853, on the ship "CORTES", 14 days out of Panama. They experienced rough weather and very strong winds for several of those days. !John H. arrived in California in 1853, and upon his arrival he went to the gold mines around Placerville, in El Dorado County, where he prospected and mined gold until he contracted rheumatism. He then moved to Lafayette, in Contra Costa County, where he went to work for Squire Elam Brown.

!1857 Marriage: John H. and Elizabeth Sophronia Shuey, were married in 1857, in California.

!John and Elizabeth then moved to Humboldt County, where they settled on the Eel River and farmed there until the trouble with the Indians forced them to leave that area in 1858. They traded their land for a band of stock, which they then drove overland to Contra Costa County. While they were enroute there they stopped for the night in the Russian River country of Sonoma County and they negotiated with a resident for grazing for the night for the herd. The man had large cornfield about half a mile back of the place where they wanted to keep the herd, and John told the owner he would put a border between the grass plot and the corn so as to keep the animals from damaging the latter. The man replied that he would stand any loss from the stock eating his corn. The next morning, when they came to get their cattle, none were in sight and they were traced to the cornfield; but when Mr. Putnam arrived there he realized what the owner had meant when he said he would be responsible for damage, for the stalks were twenty feet high and a man would have to be on horseback to reach the lowest ear on the stalk.

!1858: Upon arriving in Pacheco, Contra Costa County. John H. built the first hotel there. He operated this for about eight months, but ranching appealed to him more strongly, however, and he went to Fruitvale, in Alameda County, where his wife's father had settled in 1860.

!They returned to Contra Costa County later, where he became the superintendent of the Akalanes Grant for a time, at Lafayette, for Squire Brown.

!1860 census: Brooklyn, Alameda County, California. John H. is listed as 31 NY, a farmer. His wife, Elizabeth, is 20 IL. The children are: Emma 2 CA, and George A. 6 months CA.

!1866: John H. operated an express line between San Leandro and San Francisco, making his home in San Leandro, where he also served as the first marshall of that town.

!1870 census: San Leandro, Alameda County, California. John H. is listed as 43 NY, an expressman. His wife, Elizabeth, is 31 IL. The children are: Emma 11 CA, George A. 10 CA, Mineta 8 CA, William 5 CA, and Charles 1 CA.

!1872: John H. went into the general merchandise business in Walnut Creek, which he continued as a profession for seven years.

!1879: John H. and his family moved to the state of Washington in 1879, and he farmed there for some years.

!1880 census: Illegible, Columbia County, Washington. John is listed as 51 NY, NY, NY, a farmer. His wife, Elizabeth, is 41 IL, OH, MA. The children at home are: A. George 20 CA, M. Alice 17 CA, H. !Obituary: "Monroe County Democrat"; 22 November, 1901; Sparta, Wisconsin. Quote:.. "DEATH OF MRS. PUTNAM.. Mrs. Mary Putnam, an old and esteemed resident of this city and county, widow of Isaac Putnam, deceased, died at her home Wednesday afternoon, aged 81 years. The nature of her illness was cancer of the stomach, which first attacked her six months ago. In spite of all medical skill, the disease progressed rapidly until hope for her recovery was abandoned. She suffered intensely during the latter part of her sickness, but bore it all with much fortitude and resignation. Mary Duel was born in Otsego County, New York, in 1820, and was married in 1838, to Isaac Putnam. In 1855, they came to Wisconsin, settling in Farmers Valley, and later moving to a home two miles West of the city, where they lived until eight years ago. Four children survive her: Charles H. Putnam, of La Crosse; Lester J. and George L. Putnam, of Sparta; Mrs. Mary Pickett, of Alsea, Oregon, all of whom are here now. Funeral services were held this morning at the Baptist Church. Burial will be at the Woodlawn Cemetery, Sparta." End quote.

!Obituary: "Columbus Republican"; 16 August, 1902; Columbus, Wisconsin. Quote: "Mr. Fred Hicks, who from his long residence here was perhaps as well known as any man in the city, died on Tuesday morning, aged 72 years, from the infirmities of old age. He leaves an aged wife and three living children, Mrs. Parnell, of Rice Lake, Iowa; Mrs. Luecke, of Plymouth, Wisconsin; and Frank Hicks, of this city. Mr. Hicks was a native of Jefferson County, New York. Mr. and Mrs. Hicks were married fifty-two years ago. They came to Wisconsin in 1851, and most of the time had made this city or vicinity their home, for thirty-six years in the house where he died. Mr. Hicks has been engaged in farming, well drilling, and moving buildings, in the latter business being especially successful. Up to within a year or so, and as long as he was able, he was a hard working man, diligent in his business. The recent death of his son "Jack" was a heavy blow to him and he has borne more than an average share of the burdens of this world. An appropriate epitaph to him would be: "At Rest." The funeral on Thursday was from his family residence. Rev. Morley S. Pettit, Pastor of the Methodist Episc. Church officiating." End quote.

!Baker, Marion; West Salem, Wisconsin; letter; 4 April, 1989. Quote: "Rebecca and Frederick, with his mother, Eunice Hicks, and his sisters, removed to Gratiot, Michigan. Several children were born to them while in Michigan. They then moved to Columbus, Columbia County, Wisconsin in 1854 or 1855." End quote.

MISS GERTRUDE PUTMAN, daughter of our former townsman, Brower Putman, died on the 19th. instant, at the home of her brother, Abe Putman, in Minneapolis, Minnesota, where she had been visiting for several weeks. She had been in poor health for two years or more, but was confined to her bed for only two weeks. For six or seven years, she made her home in Chicago, with her sisters, Alice and Judith, who are teachers in the public schools of that city. The deceased was in her 53rd. year. The remains arrived here on the noon train Saturday, accompanied by the two sisters and the brothers Abe and John, the latter now a resident of Chicago. A number of old friends of the family accompanied the remains from the depot to the cemetery, where brief services were held by Rev. John Knowles. The father, who now resides in Pasadena, California, three sisters and four brothers are left to mourn her death.
