Martin Putman

Marshall & Morgan Counties Alabama

Martin is a son of Thomas Putman of North Carolina. Martin was born in 1806 in York County, South Carolina while his folks spent a few years across the border. He married Mahulda or Huldy Parker in 1829 and was in the 1830 census of Rutherford County, North Carolina.

In 1835 or 1836 he headed south into Marshall County, Alabama. His son Thomas was born there in 1837. He was first ordained as a minister at the Salem Church in Marshall County in 1837 by the Rev. Bazel Roden. He was pastor of several Baptist Churches and there are a great many references to him in a book, A History of the Primitive Baptists of Alabama by E. B. Watts.

He was in Marshall County in 1840, and where he remained until his death May 19, 1882. He was the Pastor at the Mount Pleasant Primitive Baptist Church at the time of his death.

Martin was both a Baptist preacher and a blacksmith, and good at both professions.

Muhulda died in October 1869 of Puerperal Fever. Martin was shown as a widower in 1870.

It then seems he married two more times. He married Jane Basham on October 15, 1871. She died and he married her sister Dorcas Basham on January 15, 1880.

By 1850 he had ten children and had one more in 1853. The following is the best I can work out on the children of Martin and Huldy Putman.

Samuel M. Smith born in 1856. He married Minta Lucinda Lawrence in Blount County.

Martha 'Mattie' A. Smith born February 1872. She married John A. Keller on February 19, 1893.

JAMES WINSTON PUTMAN born in North Carolina on January of 1834. In 1880 he was in Marshall County, Alabama and was married to Elizabeth Guire on June 1, 1853 in Morgan County. He too was a Baptist Preacher and followed his father at several churches. He was ordained in 1880. He moved to Cullman, Alabama in 1889. Their children were:

John H. Putman born in 1854.

Huldah Jane Putman born 1858. She married James Trice on November 11, 1880.

Lonnie Putman born in 1891. He married Willie Adams, and later Eleanor Mallard. I only know of one child.

Clovis W. Putman born July 10, 1913 and died in Richardson Texas March 25, 1993. In 1920 Clovis shows up at age 7 living with Earl Adams a brother I guess of Willie and then in 1930 he is still in Johnson County with Charles Adams. There is a death record for Mildred Lois Pollard born December 5, 1914 and died July 1, 1932 in Johnson County. Her husband is listed as C. W. Putnam. I assume this was a first wife.

Benjamin Franklin Putman born in 1893. He married Minnie Hale Robertson. They were in Tillman County, Oklahoma in 1920.

In 1880, they were in Tippah County, Mississippi, with their son Samuel. They didn't remain in Mississippi very long. Sam was born in Alabama in 1879 and the next child was born in Alabama in 1884. It appears both parents died, because their three children were shown as nieces and nephew with Martin Marion Putman's family in 1900 back in Marshall County, Alabama. The children were:

Samuel Marcus Putman born August 1, 1879. He married Etta Lavonia Green. They were in the 1910 census of Marshall County, but I don't find them in 1920 but they are there in 1930. Their children were:

CHAMPION FARRIS PUTNAM born September 18, 1852. He married Louisiana (Lucy) McLendon Roberts on August 15, 1872, and in 1880 they were in Marshall County, Alabama and in 1900 they were in Webster County, Mississippi. He was named after a Minister who preached with Martin in Alabama where Reverends Farris and Putman served in the same church. Champ died in Eupora, Webster County, Mississippi on January 4, 1927.
