

Sanford Vandiver Putman

of Calhoun County, Alabama

Sanford was born in South Carolina in 1833. He was a son of Reuben and Lucinda Putman. Sanford married Nancy Wildman in Calhoun County, Alabama on December 12, 1854. There is also a marriage record of S. V. Putman marrying Nancy Black on December 5, 1854. I would guess this is the same woman. Perhaps she was a widow and her maiden name was either Wildman or Black. Not certain.

They were in the 1860 census, but in 1870, Nancy was a widow. I assume Sanford was killed in the Civil War. She was still in Calhoun County in 1880 but I do not find her again.

Their children were:

MARY ANN PUTMAN born in 1855.

ELIZABETH PUTMAN born in 1858.

TEMPE PUTMAN born in 1860.

SARAH PUTMAN born in 1862.
