

UPDATED MARCH 20, 2010

The Daughters of Reverend John Putman

These are the several daughters of John Putman and Sarah Howard that were born in Union County South Carolina.

NANCY PUTMAN

Nancy was born about 1800-1802. In 1824 or 1825, she married Fielding Turner and they moved north to Spartanburg, South Carolina. In the 1850 Census she appears by herself as Nancy Turner age 50. In the same area was a Fielding Turner, age 54, with a wife named Martha. Perhaps they were divorced, at least that's the way it appears to me.

ALICE PUTMAN

Alice married Edward Turner in the early 1820s. This family also went to Spartanburg. In the 1830 census there were 5 children under 10 and then 5 much older children. This may have been Edward's second marriage.

CASSANDRA PUTMAN

Cassie Putman was born about 1799-1800. She married in the early 1820s to Jesse Browning and they lived in Union County South Carolina. They had 5 youngsters by the 1830 census report.

The family then moved to Attala County Mississippi. Cassie died there August 26, 1858 and Jesse on June 2, 1873. Both are buried at Hal Brunt Place near Koskiusko in Attala County.

Children were:

SAMUEL BROWNING born about 1825.

HESTER BROWNING born May 21, 1826 in South Carolina and died in Attala Mississippi. She married Alexander Watson December 17, 1854.

HIRAM BROWNING born September 6, 1827. He married an Elizabeth.

SARAH ANN BROWNING born October 23, 1828. She married William M. Crosby and moved to Yell County Arkansas.

SOLOMON BROWNING born February 18, 1830.

DORCAS BROWNING born about 1830. She married James P. Atkinson.

GREEN B. BROWNING born about 1832. He married Eliza Stanrod.

ELIZABETH BROWNING born October 10, 1835. She married Jack Atkinson.

MARTHA BROWNING born about 1836 in Atlanta Georgia where the family lived for awhile. She married Andrew Jackson Bain.

SANFORD BROWNING born September 16, 1838.

RUFUS L. BROWNING born September 30, 1842 in Atlanta. He married Sallie Fondren.

SUSANNAH PUTMAN
