

UPDATED NOVEMBER 30, 2020

WILLIAM PUTMAN

Laurens County South Carolina

He is the eldest son of James and Joice Putman. William Putman was born in Virginia on April 10, 1766. This is according to his tombstone in the Warrior Creek Cemetery. His full name may have been William Abner Putman. He bought some land under the name William A. Putman.

He married Mary Mitchell, daughter of Nimrod Mitchell and Mary Elizabeth Penn, in Union County South Carolina probably in the mid 1790s.

William died in Laurens County South Carolina on May 10, 1816 according to one source and on May 30, 1816 according to his tombstone. This tombstone was not an original one. I believe Corrine Putman Meheringer put them up, so I just am not certain. His will was probated on June 4, 1816 and is in Box 60, Package 3.

Mary died in Laurens County sometime after 1842 according to one source and on September 12, 1838 according to the tombstone supposedly marking her grave. She was alive in Laurens County in the 1840 census, so was alive that long. At any rate, they are both buried in the Warrior Creek Cemetery, Laurens County.

They had thirteen children:

Sarah Putman

She was born about 1793 and remained single. She died in Laurens County in 1826.

Mitchell Putman

Mitchell was born on February 18, 1794 in Laurens County. He married Sarah Elizabeth Dollar there in 1816. He eventually moved to Texas after a stop in Benton County Alabama. Elizabeth died and he married Rebecca Hall who died in 1846. He later married Mrs. Elizabeth Lloyd and finally Mrs. Laney Carpenter.

Complete details on this family will be found in the TEXAS PUTMANS section.

Children were:

SARAH ELIZABETH PUTMAN born May 25, 1832. She married George D. Mitchell.

WILLIAM PUTMAN born in 1817 and married Adeline Gipson.

MARY JANE PUTMAN born August 2, 1828. She married G. S. May.

JAMES H. PUTMAN born in 1830 and married Maria Nash.

RHODA PUTMAN born 1834 and taken by Indians.

LUCY (JUDA) PUTMAN born 1836 and taken by Indians.

HENRY PUTMAN born in 1844 and died in the 1860s, possibly in the Civil War.

Reuben Putman

Reuben was born in 1796. He married Mary Putman, a cousin and a daughter of William Putman and Dulcybella Watkins. They were in Laurens County in 1830 and then moved to Texas in the early 1837 and he died about 1839 in Washington County Texas. Mary was widowed there in the 1846 and 1850 census and died sometime in the 1860s while in Gonzales County Texas.

Much more on this family is in the section on TEXAS PUTMANS.

Their children were:

PERMILIA PUTMAN was born on March 2, 1826. She married Redick P. Odom on August 4, 1842 in Washington Co, Texas. They lived in Montague County Texas. Redick died there and Permilia died in Oklahoma. Their children were:

ELIZABETH PUTMAN was born in about 1837. She married M. F. Hayes on June 3, 1856 in Washington County Texas.

Anne Putman

Anne was born in 1797. She went with others in the family to Choctaw County Mississippi. She married John Knight. I am not certain if the marriage took place in South Carolina or in Mississippi.

Abner Putman

He was born May 8, 1798, married Haney Amanda Ashley on June 1, 1818. Haney was a daughter of John Ashley and Elizabeth Garrett. She was born June 12, 1801. He died in Laurens

County on July 4, 1878. His will was probated in July 1878 and is found in Box 186, Package 8. Haney died earlier on December 1, 1876. Both are buried in the Warrior Creek Cemetery in Laurens County.

He was born in Anderson County November 29, 1872 and died in Greenville, South Carolina April 5, 1947. Here is a interesting story I found on line: "Lee was born in Anderson County and came to Pickens County around 1892. He married Estella Thomas fondly known as 'Essie'. Essie and Lee started their life together at the foot of Six Mile Mountain in a log house which was converted into a barn after they built a larger house to accomodate a growing family. They were land owners and worked a farm in a section of Six Mile known as Pea Ridge. Along with a man named Jim White, Lee also bought and sold fertilizer which they hauled from Norris to Six Mile by mule and wagon on a dirt road. As a young man, Lee had attended Gap Hill Methodist Churt but in the early 1920's, after hearing Harold Smith preach, he joined the Baptist Church and was baptized in the Keowee River just above the bridge. Essie was also of the Baptist Faith. In 1925 Lee and Essie left Pea Ridge and moved to Six Mile where they lived out the remainder of their lives. Lee was custodian at the Baptist Church for which he was paid $3.00 per month. His joy was in ringing the bell to remind everyone of church time. Lee would often bring people home for a meal or to stay for a few days and Essie, with her sweet spirit, would prepare food and make them welcome. Essie was a godly woman, a hard worker, a good wife and mother. She had many words of wisdom. Her grandson, Lloyd Pressley remembers about a man jumping in church and Essie saying "It's not how high you jump but how you walk when your feet hit the ground." She would also say "If you want a good neighbor, be one yourself." Lee was a colorful man. He played Harmonica, juke harp and the organ. He loved to sing folk songs and entertained his grandchildren with songs like "Old Jim Crowe", "Preacher and the Bear", and "Fly on the Wall". Essie died 7/7/1942 and Lee died 4/5/1947. They are buried at Six Mile Baptist Church cemetery." They had eight children:
