

UPDATED JUNE 17, 2010

JOHN HOWARD PUTMAN

of CASS COUNTY TEXAS

John Howard Putman was born October 19, 1843 in Benton County Alabama. He is a son of Simeon Howard Putman and Sarah Caroline Teague. He was a grandson of Simeon Putman and Peggy Mercer from Barren County Kentucky and a great grandson of the Reverend John Putman and Sarah Howard from Union County South Carolina. Hence the middle name of Howard that keeps popping up.

His family moved to Marion County Alabama where he married Cerina Frances Adkins on August 26, 1861. He is in St. Clair County Alabama in 1870 with his wife Cerina and the first three children. In the 1880 census, he is back in Marion County Alabama with his folks living next door.

He took his family to Texas in about 1884 and settled in Cass County. Cerina died in 1899, and John died November 21, 1908 in Stacy, Texas.

He was a blacksmith as well as a farmer. He patented a cultivator/Plow in 1890 and manufactured it for the Hughes Springs Plow Company. He got a royalty of 50 cents per plow sold. In 1900, he is with his son Lewis in Cass County Texas at age 55.

You can refer back to the ALABAMA Section for the listing of all 13 (more likely 14) children. This section will deal with the children who remained in Texas for the next several generations.
