

UPDATED JULY 13, 2020

MADISON PUTMAN

of LLANO COUNTY TEXAS

Madison Putman is a son of Simeon Putman and Peggy Mercer and a grandson of the Reverend John Putman and Sarah Howard of Union County South Carolina. The story of John is in the SOUTH CAROLINA Section. Simeon's life is in the KENTUCKY Section. Madison's life is contained here. Madison DeKalb Putman derived his middle name from the Bavarian Mercenary General that his grandfather, John Putman, served under during the Revolution, Baron Johannes DeKalb.

Madison Putman was born in Monroe County Kentucky on August 6, 1809. He moved with his family to Hamilton County Tennessee in the mid 1820s and then in the early 1830s moved to Randolph County Alabama. He married Catherine Olivia Davidson either there or in Benton County Alabama on March 26, 1835. Catherine was born in Georgia on January 11, 1817.

In about 1846 after Texas became a Republic, he came to the Robertson Colony in what is now Williamson County Texas. In 1851, he received a grant in east Llano County Texas and moved there. He later acquired land in southwest Llano and remained there until his death in 1882.

He first lived on a farm on Pecan Creek some 22 miles southeast of Llano, Texas. From a letter I find that the land in southwest Llano was owned by an Alvin Schneider and currently by Harold Preston and the original log house still is standing, though not used. Rick Davidson wrote me in 2014 that the old house was used as a barn after a while and collapsed in the last couple of years. It was on "Old Putman Road."

During the Civil War, Madison moved his family into Comanche Indian Territory to avoid being taken into the Confederate Army. He was a supporter of the Union.

There is a wonderful story in the March 1924 issue of the Frontier Times Magazine concerning a 1864 hunting trip that 'Cal' as he was known and his son Harve made up the Upper Llano and how they were attacked by Indians. Both were wounded, dad seriously. Harve went for help and both were saved by neighbors in the area. It was stated this wound ultimately caused 'Cal' Putman's death over a decade later.

Madison Putman died on April 21, 1882 and Olivia died on July 25, 1899. Both are buried on the family ranch in southwest Llano County. The cemetery as well as the old cabin is still standing today.

The children of Madison and Olivia Putman were:

John Washington Putman

John was born on August 2, 1837 in Randolph County Alabama. He married Telitha Cumi Casner in about 1859. She was a daughter of Martin and Jane Casner and was born in Alabama in 1838 or 1839.

He and Cumi lived in Loyal Valley, Llano County until about 1872 when they moved to Gatesville, Coryell County Texas where he remained.

Cumi died sometime between February 1876 when Edward was born and the time the 1880 census was taken where John appeared as a widower. He died in Del Rio, Val Verde County in about 1896.

Their children were as follows. The Llano County Courthouse burned in 1892 and all records prior to that were destroyed. Without marriage records, most of the wives are listed by first names used in the various census returns and so it is hard to give a clearer picture.

LAURA JANE PUTMAN. She was born in 1860 in Llano County. She married a Mitchell and moved to California.

SILAS B. PUTMAN. Si was born in Llano County December 10, 1861. His wife was named Nettie. He died in Houston, Harris County Texas in 1940. In 1900 and 1910 he is alone in Dallas. They had two sons. It appears that Silas and Nettie were divorced, as in 1910 the two kids are with their mom and are stepsons of John Cronin in Bryan County Oklahoma. In 1920, the kids are in Houston, living near their dad. Silas died in Houston May 9, 1935. The two sons were:

Fred B. Putman born December 13, 1890 and died in Dallas October 31, 1956. He married Minnie Hunt and later Ruby Warnke. Ruby was born May 10, 1895 and will die May 24, 1988.

She was born in Harris County Texas October 26, 1893 and died there in Houston, Harris County September 22, 1961. In 1920 he and Emma are living with his brother Fred in Houston. In 1930 and 1940 they are living there by themselves.

MARION DANIEL PUTMAN. He was born in April 1864. He was known as Dan. He was in Prescott, Arizona widowed in 1910 through 1930. I never find him with a wife, but there is a grave marker in Prescott of a Florence Hicklin Putnam who died there July 6, 1906. I would guess she was his wife. He died while prospecting in the desert near Blythe, California on August 15, 1939.

NETTIE OLIVIA PUTMAN. She was born October 31, 1866. She married John Tallie Guynes in 1885. He was born in Mississippi in March 1864. Nettie died in Corsicana, Navarro County December 6, 1909. They had:
