

UPDATED AUGUST 20, 2012

JOHN PUTNAM

Sutton, Massachusetts to Bath County Virginia

John comes out of New England and was an early arrival in Virginia. He is a son of Fuller Putnam and Eunice Hayward of Sutton, Massachusetts. Fuller was a son of Jephtha Putnam and Ruth Fuller of Salem Village, Massachusetts. Actually, John wasn't really John, his Christian name was Jephtha. Anyway, John is not one of 'our' family, but I am detailing him as he pops up in the midst of our folk, and you need to sort these guys out.

For those that are interested, John's line is:

JOHN PUTNAM born in 1579 in Wingrave, Bucks and married Priscilla Gould. He moved to Aston Abbots, Bucks and then came to Salem Village, Massachusetts in about 1642.

JOHN PUTNAM JR. born in Aston Abbots in May 1627. He married Rebecca Prince in Salem on September 3, 1652 and died there April 7, 1710.

ELEAZER PUTNAM born in Salem Village in 1665 and died there January 25, 1732/3. He married Hannah Boardman of Ipswich on February 18, 1670/1. He later married Elizabeth Rolfe, but Hannah was the mom of Jephtha. Eleazer died January 25, 1732/3.

JEPHTHA PUTNAM born August 24, 1699. He married Ruth Fuller March 11, 1728 and moved to Sutton, Massachusetts. He later married Ruth Ray Hayward in 1746, but the first Ruth was the mother of the upcoming Fuller Putnam. Jephtha died there April 23, 1772.

FULLER PUTNAM born in Sutton on January 13, 1731/2. He married Mary Cummings of Sutton on December 4, 1752. He later married Eunice Hayward of Sutton on November 23, 1756. Eunice was the mother of the John or really Jephtha Putnam of Bath County, Virginia. Just to clarify what John's real name was, in Eben Putnam's book Fuller did have a son John born July 8, 1760 and also a son Jephtha born September 24, 1762 (according to later statements, it was actually 1764. In the next paragraph you will note two things. First John enlisted in the Army as Jephtha and second he refers to his birthday in September. He is really Jephtha, but good old John is the way he went in later life.

The following comes from a collection of Depositions of Continental Soldiers as printed in the Virginia Historical Magazine, Vol. 5 October 1897, p. 154. It basically states that on October 9, 1832 John Putnam made a deposition in Bath County, Virginia that he was 68 years old last September. He said he enlisted under the name of Jephtha Putnam at the age of 13 in Sutton, Worcester County Massachusetts for 6 months in 1778. In 1779 he re-enlisted and was stationed at Fishkill, New York where he was discharged after the war. He then lived in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania for about six years. He would have been alone as his folks were still in Sutton. He then lived for a while in Berkeley County, Virginia (now part of West Virginia) and then moved to Bath County, Virginia about 1795 and was still there in 1832. He died in 1837.

Although born as Jephtha Putnam, he is listed as John Putman in every census in which he is included. He died before the 1850 census so I cannot cross check here as far as age goes.

Anyway, whatever his name is or was, he is a son of Fuller and Eunice Putnam of Sutton, Massachusetts. He married Mary (Polly) Graves in Berkley County (West) Virginia. Their marriage bond is dated September 6, 1790.

John acquired a patent on March 19, 1795 for 125 acres on Stewart's Creek in Bath County. He later sold this land to Edward Jones on October 8, 1799.

He first appears in the 1810 census of Bath County, Virginia and was over 45 at the time with his wife Mary. In 1820 he is in his 50s as is Mary and they have one daughter, Martha, still at home. Living next to them is his son Fuller Putnam with four youngsters. In 1830 John and Mary are in their 60s and there are two other females at home. He was on the Bath County Tax Rolls from 1816 through 1820.

John Putnam died in Bath County on April 14, 1837.

I do not have the 1840 census but in 1850 Mary, now 85, is living with Thomas and Mary Ross. Thomas and Mary were both her grandchildren. Thomas was a son of Thomas and Eunice Putnam Ross, Mary was a daughter of Fuller and Sarah Putnam. Martha, still unmarried and 70, is with them as well. Mary never made it to the 1860 census, as she died in Allegheny County July 15, 1855.

Now as near as I can reconstruct it, the family of John Putman and Mary Graves was:

Lucy Putnam

She was born about 1791. She married Alexander (Orlando) Griffith in Bath County on January 18, 1812. Orlando was a son of William Griffith and Sarah Reynolds, also of Bath County.

The children were:

NANCY 'NANNY' GRIFFITH She married Elijah Putnam February 9, 1854 in Allegheny County. He is a son of Fuller Putnam, and the children are listed there.

MAHALA GRIFFITH

JOSHUA GRIFFITH born about 1816.

WILLIAM GRIFFITH born about 1820

CHARLES GRIFFITH born about 1823. His children were:

Mahala Griffith think she is the one who married Charles Putnam, son of the following Sarah Griffith and John Putnam.

C. F. Griffith

SARAH GRIFFITH born about 1827. She married John Putnam October 10, 1843 in Bath County. John is another son of Fuller and Sarah Putnam, and the children are listed there under John Putnam.

Fuller Putnam

Fuller was born in 1795 in Bath County. The 1850 census states he was born in Bath County. He was named after his Grandfather, John's dad back in Sutton.

We don't get his wife's name until the 1850 Census and it was Sarah and she was born in adjacent Alleghany County, Virginia. They were both 56 when the census was taken. They were probably married in Bath County about 1813.

I am now going to make an attempt at the kids of Fuller and Sarah Putnam based on Census reports and not much more.

NANCY PUTNAM was born in January 1813. She never married and was still single at age 68 in 1880.

MARY PUTNAM was born about 1815. She married Thomas Ross Junior. He was a son of Thomas Ross and Eunice Putnam, one of John's daughters. After she died in the 1850s, Thomas married a widow Nancy (Mayse) Hoilman. Based on the 1860 and 1870 reports, their children were:

John Ross born in 1838.

James E. Ross born in 1840.

Martha Frances Ross born in 1843.

Henry Fuller Ross born in 1845.

Samuel David Ross born in 1847.

Mary Ann Ross born in 1849.

George T. Ross born in 1851.

Sarah E. Ross born in 1853.

Anderson F. Ross born in 1856.

Hannah S. Ross born in 1858.

JOHN PUTNAM was born about 1819 or 1820. His wife, Sarah Griffith, was born in 1826. She was a widow in the 1860 and 1870 census reports, and was age 56, in Alleghany County in the 1880 census. Their children appear to be:

Julia Putnam born in 1846. She married Jonethero Hinebaugh and her mother, Sarah, was living with them in 1880.

William Elias Putnam born March 18, 1847. His wife was Maggie Allison. They were married June 1, 1870, and in 1880 they had 3 children. They are in Alleghany County in 1880. Maggie died January 17, 1898. In 1900 he is back in Bath County at age 52. He has a new wife named Mary Carter some 23 years younger than he, born in August 1870 and a young son William age 2. He and Mary are here in 1910 and still around in 1920 when he was 72 and Mary 49. He died August 10, 1925. Mary was born June 10, 1870 and died October 12, 1941 in Bath County. Based on the 1880 to 1920 Census Reports, the children were:

1940 he is in Millboro living with his brother William Elias' widow Mary Frances Putnam.

He served in WWI, and then came back and worked as a repairman for the railroad in 1920 and through 1940. Irene will die in the 1940s, and he married Effie Louisa Combs in Kanawha County West Virginia March 11, 1948. Effie had previously married Sidney Jacob Neathawk in Pocahontas County West Virginia December 27, 1920. She was born in Kentucky in 1902. She and Sidney obviously divorced, as he lived to be 103 when he died in 2001.

Raymond A. Putman born in January 1902.

Lucy E. Putman born in 1905.

Sally C. Putman born in 1908.

Joseph Putman born about 1851. He married Sarah (Sallie) E. Ross, and died in an accident while working for the C & O Railroad September 15, 1874. Sallie was a daughter of Thomas Ross and Mary Putnam. In 1880 Sally was shown as a widow with a six-year old daughter, Evelyn or Emeline. Sally later married Brian Wood in Alleghany County on December 1, 1884.

Elizabeth R. Putman born in 1855.

RACHEL PUTNAM was born in April 1820 and never married. She was living with a nephew, Charles, in 1880 at age 60.

ELIJAH or ELIAS PUTNAM was born about 1823. His wife was Nancy (Nannie) Griffith. She was a widow in 1880 at age 58 and was living with her relative of sorts, Charles. They had two sons before Eli died.

Orlando Jordan Putnam was born July 19, 1855. His wife Mary Ann Ross, daughter of Thomas Ross and Mary Putnam, was born in June 1848, and was with him in the 1880 and 1900 reports. They were married December 3, 1874. In 1910 and 1920 he had a new wife named Virginia Smith some 20 years his junior. Virginia is widowed in Millboro, Bath County in 1930 and 1940. ELIZABETH V. PUTNAM was born April 27, 1823. She never married, but did have at least one son out of wedlock. She lived with her folks and later her sister Nancy. Her son Charles and Alexander Putnam who may have been hers or more likely her sister Margaret's moved off into West Virginia and remained there with their families. The folks in Ritchie County, West Virginia are all of this clan. Her son was:

Charles Francisco Putnam born November 27, 1849. I think he was born in 1850 based on other records. His wife was Agnes Keziah Rowe, born April 1850. In 1880 they were in Bath County and in 1900 in Ritchie County, West Virginia, along with his brother Alexander. He and Agnes were still there in 1930 both at age 80. Charles' death certificate says he died January 12, 1935 and it was signed by Agnes who was still alive at the time. It also says his dad was Fuller Putnam, so maybe his grandfather had a little affair with his daughter Elizabeth. Keziah was a daughter of Christian Rowe and

Elizabeth Brinkley and was born April 27, 1849 and died in Grant, Richie County January 16, 1941. She was almost 93 and died of senility. In these census reports, their children were:

Maggie Cecile Putnam born October 12, 1889. She died January 31, 1894 from burns when her clothing caught on fire.

Walter Wiley Putnam born November 5, 1891. In 1920 he is with his brother Robert in Marion County, West Virginia. He is not married at that time and worked for the railroad. He died in a railroad accident June 17, 1925.

ALBERT FRANKLIN PUTNAM was born about 1832. He appears as Albert in 1850 and Franklin in 1860. I assume it is the same guy. He is gone by 1870, probably a Civil War casualty.

MARGARET 'PEGGY' PUTNAM born in 1834. She never married, but I think she had a son Alexander born out of wedlock. He may have been another child out of wedlock with her sister Elizabeth. But on his marriage certificate he listed his parents as William and Margaret Putnam. I am going to include him here just in case.

Alexander Fuller Putnam born May 18, 1849. He was not listed in 1850 as I guess he was an embarrassment of sorts. He might be another out of wedlock son of her sister Elizabeth. Others say he was not connected to Elizabeth. Not sure at all. He married Jemima Heck July 21, 1878. They were in Ritchie County, West Virginia in the 1880, 1900 and 1910 census reports. Jemima is a widow by 1920 when she was 66 years old. They remained in Ritchie County all their lives. They only had one child:

Clyde Elbert Putnam born March 1, 1880. He married Iva Stanley around 1904 in Ritchie County. They had twelve children (I have the group sheet). Clyde died in Petroleum, Ritchie County in 1966. The children were:

Esther Putnam born June 20, 1909.

Beatrice Putnam born July 31, 1911.

Lillian Putnam born February 21, 1914.

Elma Putnam born April 26, 1921.

Verdis Putnam born March 28, 1923.

Lola Murial Putnam born March 17, 1925.

SAMUEL PUTNAM was born about 1836. I do not find him in 1870. There was a Margaret Putman, a widow, by the 1880 census in Doddridge County, West Virginia. I think this was her, but not certain. According to the marriage certificate of William Henry Putman, his parents were Samuel and Margaret Putman. In 1870, Margaret and her daughter Emma were living with Sam's sisters in Bath County. In the 1880 census, Margaret was living with her mother and stepfather, and a brother George Ross. Her maiden name was Ross. His sister Mary also married a Ross. I assumed that Margaret was a widow in 1880, but it seems she had another child, James in 1882. In 1880, Margaret was living with her mother Adeline or Ada Hollis. In 1900, James was living with his 'grandmother Adeline Hollis.' Very confusing. If this Margaret was Samuel's wife, then they had:

Emma Putman born in 1865.

William Henry Putman born September 12, 1875, and died March 22, 1948. He was not listed in 1900. In 1910 and 1920, he has a wife named Cora Clara Skinner, born July 22, 1885 and died December 19, 1948, and is in Doddridge County. William Henry and Cora were married in Reynoldsville, Harrison County, West Virginia on January 29, 1903. Their children were:

Octavia Putman born April 7, 1905. She married Howard Ross in Doddridge County March 8, 1925.

William Patrick Putman born February 11, 1907. He married Lucy Ann Lipscomb West Union, Doddridge County on July 25, 1929. They are in Central, Doddridge County in 1930. He will die in Parkersburg, Wood County West Virginia on January 13, 1964. Lucy Ann is a daughter of Elijah and Samantha Lipscomb and was born August 16, 1908, and died in Parkersburg April 16, 1992.

Catherine Margaret Putman born June 11, 1910.

Woodrow Wilson Putman born here April 6, 1912 and died in Hockingport, Athens County Ohio August 9, 1967. He married Mary in Harrison County March 24, 1932. Mary was born July 17, 1913 in Weston, Lewis County West Virginia and died in Parkersburg, Wood County West Virginia February 15, 1988.

Mildred Bee Putman born November 18, 1915.

Gertrude Marie Putman born April 12, 1921. She married James Patrick Kelley in 1939.

Dareld Paul Putman born July 2, 1921. He married Dora Belle Barker in Harrison County on February 19, 1946. She was a daughter of Scott Barker and Bessie Meadows.

Virginia Betty Ann Putman born October 17, 1923. She married Wilbert James Scheuvront on August 8, 1946. He was a son of Terry Leroy Scheuvront and Flossie Mae Kelley.

Naomi Pauline Putman born August 24, 1927 and died by 1930.

Edward Putman born in 1935.

James Putman born in November 1882. He was with his grandmother in 1900, and I don't find him again.

ROBERT PUTMAN was born about 1839. I do not find him in 1870.

She was born May 3, 1800. She married James Norman Harrison Windon on September 22, 1820. After he died in 1858, she moved with others to Dodderidge County, West Virginia. She died there in 1888.

Their children were:

Martha was born in 1810 and never married. She was living with Thomas and Mary Ross in 1860 and 1870 and with Tom's second wife, Nancy Ross, in 1880, at age 70.
